EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2, 1902.

LAST DEAL IS CLOSED FOR A TROLLEY LINE ACROSS THE COUNTY

Positive Information Learned
That Rights of Way Have Been Secured.

SCHEME QUIETLY PUT THROUGH

Company Formed by Eastern Capitalists, With L. W. Healy as Manager.

ENTIRE ROUTE IS SURVEYED

And Work Will Be Hurried Through Without Delay — Beaver Valley Traction Company Will Connect Its Lines—Gigantic Project.

From one of the officials of the company projecting the deal, the details were learned by the News Review today of a scheme which has been quietly under way for several weeks, but which has just been carried through for the building of an electric railway from East Liverpool to Lisbon.

As evidence, which cannot be questioned, that the scheme is absolutely certain of success, William Crawford, who has been acting as right-of-way agent for the parties back of the scheme, closed a bargain today for the purchase of the only piece of ground needed for the construction of the line from one end to the other. All land needed has now been secured.

The new line is to be an extension of the East Liverpool railway, and while L. W. Healy will be the manager, it will be controlled by a different company, composed of eastern capitalists. The route, which has been surveyed the entire distance, will start from Smith's Ferry, passing up Beaver creek to the Starkey farm, above Sprucevale, where a tunnel three-fourths of a mile long will have to be built.

It was the tract where the tunnel is to be located that was purchased by Crawford today. After getting through the hill at this point the line will be built along the old Lisbon canal to the upper terminus, where it is expected it will eventually be connected with the line now being built from Alliance to Salem, which will in all probability be extended on to Lisbon.

Another scheme in connection with the East Liverpool-Lisbon line is being put through by the Beaver Valley Traction company, which is extending its road to Smith's Ferry. In fact, the deal to connect the two lines is positively assured for the reason that a contract for the building of a bridge to cross Beaver creek, just north of the county bridge, has been let by the Beaver company, which already has its line surveyed to Vanport.

The cost of the cross-county line is estimated at $170,000, and it is the purpose to have it completed the coming summer. Work on the tunnel will commence in a few weeks.

For unknown reasons the details of the new scheme have been kept quiet, but the information as given the News Review is absolutely reliable.

ONE ARGUMENT HEARD

Hon. R. W. Tayler Speaks on the Case of Dr. W. L. Thompson, of This City.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — The argument of Congressman R. W. Tayler in the case of Dr. W. L. Thompson, of East Liverpool, was heard this morning, to enable Mr. Tayler to return to Washington this afternoon.

The other arguments will not be heard before tomorrow, or until the case of Chamberlain vs. Chamberlain, begun this morning, is finished. It will probably require a night session.

SEVERAL CHANGES

In the Personnel of the Columbian County Telephone Exchange.

Several changes are being made in the working force at the Columbian County Telephone exchange in this city.

H. B. Koplin, who has been in charge of the East Liverpool district for some time, will relinquish the superintendency to A. N. Richardson, of Salem, who has already assumed the duties of the position.

The East Liverpool district takes in Salineville, Wellsville, Irondale and this city, and is one of the most profitable and important in the county.

Mr. Richardson has been with the company ever since a line was established in this part of the state and is a thoroughly practical man. Mr. Koplin will remain in the East Liverpool office for the present.

J. C. Kernahan, who has been assistant to Supt. Koplin, has been transferred to the Salem district.

Taken to the Asylum.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Sheriff Leonard conveyed to the Masonic hospital this morning Gertrude King, of East Liverpool, and Josephine McLaughlin, of Lisbon, both insane.

A BIG MEETING OF ENGINEERS

TO BE HELD IN THE CITY TOMORROW NIGHT.

A Lecture on Electrical Engineering Will Be an Important Feature.

At its hall in the Oyster block, Sixth street, tomorrow evening, East Liverpool association No. 41, National Association of Stationary Engineers, will hold a most interesting meeting. Arrangements have been made for two lectures upon subjects of interest to the profession.

One of the main objects of the national association is to keep abreast of the times in the matter of advancement in the several branches of engineering, both electrical and steam. It is the purpose of the local association to make the meeting here one of the most interesting and profitable in the history of the society. With this object in view arrangements have been made with O. C. Pillichody, of Steubenville, for a lecture on electrical engineering. Mr. Pillichody is chief electrician of the entire Wheeling and Steubenville traction system and is one of the best posted men in this section of the state.

District Examiner Elmer E. Miller, of Canton, will deliver an illustrated lecture upon the license law and its workings in Ohio.

Mr. Miller is a pleasant talker and has a way of explaining things that makes them very easily understood. He takes up the different departments of the work separately and gives the members an opportunity to ask questions after each part has been discussed.

The association will hold no business meeting tomorrow night, and the entire evening will be given over to the program which has been arranged.

Preparations have been made for the entertainment of members of the association from the following societies: East Palestine, No. 58; Salineville, No. 56; Wellsville, No. 61; Lisbon, No. 33; Steubenville, No. 52.

LARGELY ATTENDED

And Marked By Enthusiasm Was the Meeting of Grocers' And Butchers' Clerks.

The grocers' and butchers' clerks met last night in their new quarters above the postoffice. The attendance was unusually large and the meeting enthusiastic.

Aside from initiating several new candidates into the organization, arrangements were started for an entertainment which is to be given by all the local clerks some time during the present month.

Entertained Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, of Thompson avenue, entertained quite a number of their friends at their home. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Drew the Prize.

The case of silver knives, forks and spoons which were sold by ticket for the benefit of Harry Dunn, now in Mercy hospital, goes to W. D. White, of Ford City. Over 550 tickets were sold. The drawing took place last night at Brotherhood hall.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL NELSON A. MILES, WHO MAY RETIRE.

When the civil war began General Miles was a clerk in a crockery store in Boston. He volunteered and at 25 was commanding an army corps. His civil war record was excellent and at the war's close he was a major general. In 1900 he was made a lieutenant general.

JAMES WALTERS IS FINED $100

Mayor Learned He Was at Home and Promptly Summoned Him.

SETTLEMENT SOON MADE

His Request That the Charges Against Him Be Changed Promptly Refused. Daniel Pickall, of Unlucky 13, Fined $5 And Costs.

Information reached Mayor Davidson yesterday afternoon that James Walters, who was arrested for keeping his saloon open last Sunday evening, was in the city, though it had been reported that he had left. Both the mayor and Chief Thompson telephoned to Walters' place of business, but were informed each time that the proprietor was absent.

Just before supper last evening Mayor Davidson again called up Walters' saloon, and by disguising his voice, succeeded in getting the unsuspecting man to answer. Threatening to send an officer after him unless he immediately put in an appearance for his hearing, the mayor hung up the telephone receiver.

Fearing to take any chances on being escorted to the city hall by an officer, Walters lost no time in reporting to the mayor. He pleaded guilty to the charge against him and was fined $100 and costs. He gave security for the amount and was released.

The association will hold no business meeting tomorrow night, and the entire evening will be given over to the program which has been arranged.

Preparations have been made for the entertainment of members of the association from the following societies: East Palestine, No. 58; Salineville, No. 56; Wellsville, No. 61; Lisbon, No. 33; Steubenville, No. 52.

FRATERNAL VISIT MADE BY MASON

Large Delegation From Monongahela Valley Guests of Local Lodge.

AGREEABLY ENTERTAINED

And Given a Taste of East Liverpool Hospitality — The Program Followed During the Evening — A Most Enjoyable Evening.

Masons from the Monongahela valley last evening paid a friendly visit to Riddle lodge No. 315, F. & A. M., of this city, all of which goes to prove that a jolly good time was shown the visitors. At 6:15 o'clock a special train of an engine and two coaches, in charge of Engineer Headly, formerly of this city, and Conductor Cash McKee, of Cleveland, arrived at the Second street station.

The special from Pittsburgh to this city made exceptionally quick time, and especially was this so during the run between Rochester and this city. When the train arrived here the visitors were met by Oliver C. Vodrey and George Croxall, of Riddle lodge, who assisted the visitors in locating their hotels. A carriage was in waiting at the station for one whom the visitors called "Grandpa" Jacob Qualk. He with T. J. Underwood and W. C. Smith were driven to the home of Mrs. S. C. House, of Ninth street.

The ceremony at the Masonic hall, where the third degree of the Blue lodge was exemplified commenced about 8 o'clock, and the visitors commenced to assemble at the hall at about 7 o'clock. After the degree work was completed luncheon was served and the evening passed most delightfully. The special train left for the Monongahela valley about 1 o'clock and arrived at Brownsville at 4 o'clock this morning.

The visiting Masons were from Brownsville, California, Allentown, Roscoe, Monongahela, Coal Center Fayette City, Roscoe and Belle Vernon. Seventy or 80 persons were to have been in the party, but owing to the weather and press of business only 52 were able to take the trip to the Ceramic City. The list of the visitors follows:

W. C. Smith, O. F. Piper, W. E. Jackson, L. S. Jackman, L. S. Baker, Fred Spear, C. L. Brevard, A. Frazier, J. E. Hines, T. J. Crombie, Thomas Owens, W. A. Hoge, Karl Keffer, J. D. Birmingham, John K. Henry, J. F. Laird, C. P. Speer, John N. Newbarer, J. A. McKee, F. W. Forsythe, Edward Mansfield, J. N. Pfleghart, L. H. Reeves, Jacob Qualk, Esq., C. H. Treasure, William Hough, Charles Hollister, Charles Stewart, John Black, J. A. Jeffers, George Klock, Herbert Alles, Frank Osborne, Edward Allen, Henry Neil, T. R. Eagey, Robert McLuckee, E. L. Collier, Henry Henderson, John McVicker, John Porter, J. H. Underwood, Thomas J. Underwood, J. L. Mountain, Arthur Neal, J. R. Steel, W. L. Quinn, N. D. Jones, Charles Conner, Vernon Hazzard, F. M. Boggs, Joseph Nivins, J. B. Wilkins, Theodore Landefeld, H. C. Sutman, George H. Foster, William Seddon, Frank Hoge.

Charles O. Morgan has returned to his home in Wellsville from a year's stay in South Africa, where he fought with the British against the Boers for about six months.

He arrived in Wellsville Saturday, and a letter his father, Conductor Morgan, of the East Liverpool railway, wrote to him one year ago, was returned to him at Wellsville Monday. The letter encircled the globe.

new to many of them. Souvenirs were procured and taken home by the visitors.

The oldest Mason in the party was Jacob Qualk, Esq., son-in-law of Thomas J. Underwood, of California. He has often visited relatives in this city and has frequently attended sessions of the Masonic lodge while here. Another prominent visitor was Vernon Hazzard, editor and owner of the Monongahela Daily Republican, while Herbert Alles is prominently identified with coal interests in the upper Monongahela valley. Mr. Qualk was 88 years old last year, and during his young days was employed on the Ohio river by steamboatmen. He has frequently spoken of the rapid growth of this city and could mind the time when there were only a few houses in the town, which was at that time called Fawcettstown.

Motion Passed at the Meeting of the Union Accepting Terms.

MINORITY IS NOT PLEASED

One of the Number Says the Agreement Is a Complete Backdown.

PAY TO BE $3.50 A DAY

Where a Carpenter Takes Work Outside His Regular Job—Stonemasons And Contractors Still Trying to Reach Agreement.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of the carpenters' union, held in its hall last night. The call was issued for the purpose of taking action upon the ultimatum submitted by the bosses yesterday, and it was thought the session would be very short, as from the expressions heard yesterday the proposition would be rejected. Strange to say a far different action was taken.

A prominent member of 328 said this morning: "After all that has been said and done, the action of last night was a complete backdown. The move came as a surprise to a great many of the members, as it was thought all had sufficient backbone to stand out for what had been decided upon in the beginning. The majority not only decided to accept the terms of the contractors, but made further concessions in the matter of individual contracting.

A motion was passed providing that where a carpenter takes work outside his regular job he shall charge at the rate of $3.50 per day. In this way the employees protect the contractors and makes it more profitable for individuals having work done to place it in the hands of a contractor. In other words, as was stated by a journeyman this morning: "We simply bind ourselves to remain employees and sign away our rights to do contracting or the chance of ever becoming a contractor."

The new wage scale of the stonemasons' union has not yet been signed, and it is probable before it is made operative it will look very different from the original.

The conference committee composed of C. J. Goodballet, Jesse Wise and Stephen Hague, of the union, and John Schmelzenbach, Frank Hinton and James Cunningham, from the contractors, has been in session since yesterday morning.

The original demand of the men called for a shorter work day and an increase in pay from $3.51 to $3.87½ per day. Early in the conference the shorter time clause was abandoned by the men, and the matter of wages was taken up. This latter question has occupied the conference since yesterday. It has been given out that the entire matter will be settled this afternoon, but upon what basis no one will venture to say.

GIVEN THE GO-BY

Vanport Will Not Get the Big Standard Steel Car Plant.

The Standard Steel Car company yesterday purchased 300 acres of ground at Butler, Pa., as a site for the proposed new works at a cost of about $90,000. The company also began yesterday the preparation of the site for the new works. These are expected to be completed and ready for operation by August 15.

This is the plant, which, it was reported, was to be built at Vanport, and there will be consequent disappointment there.

Previous to entering his plea Walters made the somewhat peculiar request of the mayor that the charge of Sunday selling be changed to that of keeping his saloon open after the hours of closing. The request was, of course, refused.

Daniel Pickall, who was among the unlucky 13 captured in the Walters' raid, and who refused to plead guilty, changed his mind this morning. His disposition to be contrary cost him $5 more than his companions who pleaded guilty. He was assessed $10 and costs and committed to the work house.

There were no arrests last night, but several lodgers occupied the jail.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Mrs. Josephine McLaughlin, of Lisbon, has been adjudged insane and will be committed to the Massillon hospital. She is 29 years old and the mother of three children. NEW ORDER GIVEN BY THE MAYOR

LAST WARNING ISSUED TO THE SALOON MEN.

Unless the Screen Ordinance Is Obeyed They Will Pay the Penalty.

If Mayor Davidson enforces the new order given by him today—and he declares he will—there is a strong probability that several saloon keepers will be called upon to pay fines for violating the screen ordinance.

To a News Review reporter this morning the mayor made the statement that he proposes to make this warning his last one, and henceforth will prosecute every saloonist who is found guilty of neglecting the provisions of the ordinance.

The greatest fault the mayor has to find is with the manner in which the windows of some of the bar rooms are covered with curtains, thus preventing a free and unobstructed view of the interior, as the ordinance prescribes. At several saloons the officers claim they are only able to see back of the bars, while the customers on the other side are shielded by the curtains.

Frosted glass is also forbidden, and the mayor says he wants it removed, or, at least, enough to permit a full view of both the front and back of the bars. The saloons that are not observing the law as the mayor thinks they should are not among the leading ones of the city. Most of them are on the back streets, but the officers have been instructed to keep a close watch on them.

From April to October screens must come down at 10 o'clock p. m., instead of 9.

DIVISION OF DEBT

Desired By the Trustee for the Insolvent Valley Gas Company.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Horace B. Nicholson, trustee, has filed suit against the Valley Gas company, Wellsville. The petition relates that Nicholson as trustee received a judgment for $12,400 against the insolvent company.

No part of this amount has been paid, and the trustee asks that the court examine the affairs of the company and ascertain the amount due him by reason of his judgment and costs; ascertain who the other creditors are, if any, and the amounts due them, and that the court order each solvent stockholder to pay his ratable share of the judgment.

EAST ENDNEW WATER SERVICE

Survey Completed for the New Mains to Be Located in the East End.

Supt. Phil Morley, of the water works department, this morning announced that he had completed the work of measuring the districts in the East End through which additional water service would be extended. To complete this work will require between 4,000 and 5,000 feet of pipe of the four and six-inch variety.

After these new mains are laid the water service will be extended almost to the state line, giving a service to a part of the city which in the past has been in many instances dependent upon the water in the wells.

Work at Power House.

A force of men again resumed work at the power house this morning, building a brick wall or inclosure about the new boiler, which was recently installed there by the United Power company. The weather has held this work back considerably, otherwise the walls would have been completed. Work on the new building, to be built about the new boiler, will start as soon as the brick work is finished.

Home Circle Growing.

At a meeting of Eureka circle, of the Protected Home circle, which was held in the East End last evening, 11 new members were initiated, proving this order to be one of the largest in point of membership, of any in the East End. After the business session there was a social session, which was very enjoyable. Tomorrow evening this circle will visit Stratton circle, which meets on Fifth street.

Sale of Oil Property.

The Glover property at Smith's Ferry has been sold to Grant McGrew, of that town. The consideration was $500. Mr. McGrew is one of the most prominent residents of the Ferry and has been prominently identified with the oil development of that section of Beaver county.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. John Densmore is rapidly recovering from her recent illness.

Sophia Larkins, of the East End, who has been ill with diphtheria, was somewhat improved this morning.

The annual congregational meeting of the members of the Second U. P. church will be held this evening.

James Fulton, formerly a carpenter employed in the East End, will open a hardware store on Mulberry street soon.

Louis Howard, foreman of the East End street cleaning force, left yesterday for Jamestown, N. Y., in response to a message announcing the serious illness of his grandfather.

Governor Nash Urges the Legislature to Pass the Tax Bill.

Legislative Work.

Columbus, April 2.—(Special)—Governor Nash is visibly vexed over the manifest temporization of the senate with reference to his taxation measures and yesterday he sent a message to the general assembly in which he emphasized requests made in two former messages, that, in order that the great majority of the taxpayers may be benefitted, these bills should be speedily passed and made laws.

As anticipated, the Sieber substitute for the Painter canal abandonment bill has passed the house. The purpose of the substitute is to make possible the permanent retention of the canals. The house also passed the Comings bill, providing for the abolishment of canal commissioners positions. It provides that the entire state board of public works shall act in unison on canals. The senate yesterday passed the bill of Senator Connell, of Columbiana, making the office of state dairy and food commissioner a three-year term and extending the term of office of the present incumbent 11 months.

The McDonald free lunch bill was defeated in the house Tuesday.

Survey Completed for the New Mains to Be Located in the East End.

Supt. Phil Morley, of the water works department, this morning announced that he had completed the work of measuring the districts in the East End through which additional water service would be extended. To complete this work will require between 4,000 and 5,000 feet of pipe of the four and six-inch variety.

After these new mains are laid the water service will be extended almost to the state line, giving a service to a part of the city which in the past has been in many instances dependent upon the water in the wells.

A force of men again resumed work at the power house this morning, building a brick wall or inclosure about the new boiler, which was recently installed there by the United Power company. Work on the new building, to be built about the new boiler, will start as soon as the brick work is finished.

HOW

AN ADVERSE DECISION

Submitted by Attorney General
Sheets on Special Legislation in Ohio.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Behind in Their Work—Final Adjournment May Be Delayed on Account of Tardiness in Doing Out State Funds.

Columbus, O., April 2.—[Special.]—Attorney General Sheets has submitted an opinion to Speaker McKinnon of the house relating to the matter of special legislation for bond issues. While the opinion is one of transcendental importance it need cause no unusual surprise, since it is but a copy of the stand taken by the supreme court in several of its recent decisions. In brief, the opinion is that all legislation granting to municipalities the power to issue bonds for its own use is unconstitutional, and of no avail. Now, such an opinion given at the opening of the session would be most delightful and save the members of the assembly a wonderful amount of work, but coming at this time, shortly before adjournment, it is liable to completely upset plans and render void much that has been done. Many bills of such a character have been passed and the bonds authorized, issued and sold. What an embarrassing situation it will be for the papers to announce some day that the law under which the action was taken has been declared unconstitutional, and the whole proceeding wrong. Yet that is just what will be done in many instances. There is but one way out of all this difficulty, and towards that way the speaker is endeavoring to force the footsteps of the assembly. It is the passage of a general law carrying bond issues under which all municipalities in the state may work. Such a bill was introduced in the senate some time ago by Mr. Longworth of Cincinnati, but that one has no hope of passing. It is too sweeping in its provisions, and would permit councils too much leeway in the matter of determining when bonds should be issued. Speaker McKinnon is now having another drawn in which the interests of the people will be hedged around with all sorts of safeguards, and bonds can not be issued without their acquiescence in the plan. He hopes that it will be quickly passed, in order that the question may be determined once and for all. In the meantime there will be no more local bills acted upon.

The finance committees of the house and senate are weeks behind in their work. Two years ago both of the general appropriation bills were introduced by April 6, and both passed and out of the way by the 13th. This year neither is within two weeks of introduction, and it will be well towards the latter part of the month before they can be enacted into laws. Adjournment must wait until that has been done, and, indeed, adjournment today is simply holding off to meet the convenience of the finance committee. Chairman Crafts of the house committee, who has the bills in charge, has prepared a rough sketch, which will be submitted to the senate committee this week. Then the real work begins. A little will be taken off here and there, and a little added on in another place. This process of addition and subtraction will be continued for all of a week, providing it goes on harmoniously. If differences arise it may be a matter of two weeks. After all this has been done, and the committees are of one mind, the bills will go to the governor for any suggestions he may have to make. The chief executive always calls in the auditor of state and the treasurer and other state officials, and they scrutinize the bills carefully. If everything is agreeable, the committees in holding the second until its forerunner introduce the first one into the house, never shall have passed both branches. The second then comes along. As a rule, there is little difficulty experienced after the measures have reached the voting stage, for members are familiar with the provisions. They are always called before the committees during the preparation of the bills and asked if they have any requests to make, and later they are notified as to whether the requests will be granted or not. While they may be somewhat disappointed at the last, they realize the uselessness of complaining. It is in the construction stages that the delays occur. In a general way, the committees have said what they would do. Nearly every state department and public institution has asked for an increased appropriation—they always do, and very often the requests are allowed. This year in the state departments the tendency, however, will be rather to decrease than add on. One or two offices will be treated liberally in the way of an advance, where the need is really great. On the other hand, the state institutions are to be well taken care of. Perhaps some of the more extravagant demands will be refused, but wherever the expenditure of a dollar will react to the welfare of the institution and the credit of the state the dollar will be given. Economy, but not niggardly, is the rule along which the committee is trying to work.

Ohio will hereafter have a banner of its own, the bill by Mr. McKinnon providing for this having been adopted. The banner is one of much neatness in design, and an exact reproduction of that which floated over the Ohio building at the Pan-American exposition. It will be especially appropriate at great national and international fairs, when Ohio is represented and where some distinctive mark of recognition is desired. The weary or belated Ohio visitor who loses his way can always see this insignia of welcome floating from the flagstaff of his state building. It will be a mark of beauty and a saver of guide fees.

The question of how co-operative loan companies should be organized, and how conducted after being organized, has long been a question of legislative debate and consideration. Representative Fraser of Lucas believes he has solved it through a bill prepared by a Toledo attorney—his partner, E. J. Marshal. The measure first requires that the capital stock of these companies must not exceed $300,000, and that $5,000 shall be paid in before operations can begin. Ten per cent of the earnings must be set aside for the creation of a surplus, in order to secure stability, but the surplus need not exceed 10 per cent of the capital stock. In the loaning of money to members, and therein should come the greatest care, an amount not to exceed 10 per cent of the paid-up capital stock can be loaned any member, and on chattel mortgages and similar securities not over $500 must go out. Mr. Marshal, the author, and Mr. Fraser, who introduced it, are quite confident that with these regulations the business can be conducted without reproach from the public, and with profit to the stockholders.

Some idea of the task which awaits the house this week when the municipal code bill comes up for final passage may be gathered from the fact that 176 amendments have been prepared and will be submitted. These amendments represent the views of different members and their constituents, and each member and constituent is satisfied that unless his amendment is adopted the bill will lose its value to the people. Burdened down, as it will be, with amendments opposed by politicians everywhere, who see in it a blow to local political machines, and having against it the solid strength of both the Hamilton and Cuyahoga county delegations, the bill can not well be passed, and, if passed, will be so patched up as to have lost all semblance to its original form, and to really mean nothing.

In this connection, and somewhat allied to it, is a proposition by Mr. Dunlap of Cleveland the purpose of which is to prevent money loaners from taking advantage of a man's need and giving him money on his salary at an unfair and illegal rate of interest. Mr. Dunlap's bill will make it a crime to loan money, taking a salary as security for payment, at a rate of interest to exceed 10 per cent per annum. Often now 10 per cent a month is forced from people who are driven to the necessity of making a loan.

The house has passed the bill providing for the continuance of the canal system. It will now go to the senate for conference. Another bill will be introduced giving the state the right to lease the canal banks for railroad purposes.

The question of how co-operative loan companies should be organized, and how conducted after being organized, has long been a question of legislative debate and consideration. Representative Fraser of Lucas believes he has solved it through a bill prepared by a Toledo attorney—his partner, E. J. Marshal. The measure first requires that the capital stock of these companies must not exceed $300,000, and that $5,000 shall be paid in before operations can begin. Ten per cent of the earnings must be set aside for the creation of a surplus, in order to secure stability, but the surplus need not exceed 10 per cent of the capital stock. In the loaning of money to members, and therein should come the greatest care, an amount not to exceed 10 per cent of the paid-up capital stock can be loaned any member, and on chattel mortgages and similar securities not over $500 must go out. Mr. Marshal, the author, and Mr. Fraser, who introduced it, are quite confident that with these regulations the business can be conducted without reproach from the public, and with profit to the stockholders.

In this connection, and somewhat allied to it, is a proposition by Mr. Dunlap of Cleveland the purpose of which is to prevent money loaners from taking advantage of a man's need and giving him money on his salary at an unfair and illegal rate of interest. Mr. Dunlap's bill will make it a crime to loan money, taking a salary as security for payment, at a rate of interest to exceed 10 per cent per annum. Often now 10 per cent a month is forced from people who are driven to the necessity of making a loan.

Famous by the Poem

"Ben Bolt."

Newark, N. J., April 2.—Dr. Thomas Dunn English died here at 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning, aged 83 years.

Thomas Dunn English was a Philadelphia by birth, a graduate of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, and during his eventful life of fourscore years his talents ran the gamut of all the leading professions, with the exception of the ministry. He was a practicing physician, a member of the Philadelphia bar, and a journalist, and was contemporaneous with Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel P. Willis and George P. Morris. He represented his state in its legislative halls and in the congress at Washington.

But the fame of Mr. English rests on his poem, "Ben Bolt." It was not until three years later that "Ben Bolt" achieved fame as a song. It was first heard in Pittsburg, where it was sung by an actor by the name of R. P. Kneass.

AN ADVERSE DECISION

Submitted by Attorney General
Sheets on Special Legislation in Ohio.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Behind in Their Work—Final Adjournment May Be Delayed on Account of Tardiness in Doing Out State Funds.

Columbus, O., April 2.—[Special.]—Attorney General Sheets has submitted an opinion to Speaker McKinnon of the house relating to the matter of special legislation for bond issues. While the opinion is one of transcendental importance it need cause no unusual surprise, since it is but a copy of the stand taken by the supreme court in several of its recent decisions. In brief, the opinion is that all legislation granting to municipalities the power to issue bonds for its own use is unconstitutional, and of no avail. Now, such an opinion given at the opening of the session would be most delightful and save the members of the assembly a wonderful amount of work, but coming at this time, shortly before adjournment, it is liable to completely upset plans and render void much that has been done. Many bills of such a character have been passed and the bonds authorized, issued and sold. What an embarrassing situation it will be for the papers to announce some day that the law under which the action was taken has been declared unconstitutional, and the whole proceeding wrong. Yet that is just what will be done in many instances. There is but one way out of all this difficulty, and towards that way the speaker is endeavoring to force the footsteps of the assembly. It is the passage of a general law carrying bond issues under which all municipalities in the state may work. Such a bill was introduced in the senate some time ago by Mr. Longworth of Cincinnati, but that one has no hope of passing. It is too sweeping in its provisions, and would permit councils too much leeway in the matter of determining when bonds should be issued. Speaker McKinnon is now having another drawn in which the interests of the people will be hedged around with all sorts of safeguards, and bonds can not be issued without their acquiescence in the plan. He hopes that it will be quickly passed, in order that the question may be determined once and for all. In the meantime there will be no more local bills acted upon.

The finance committees of the house and senate are weeks behind in their

It is proposed to make the senseless habit of treating in saloons unlawful in Ohio. Such an enactment would undoubtedly receive the endorsement of every friend of temperance. Drinking men will tell you—and they ought to know—that treating is responsible for a large share of the drunkenness that is prevalent in every city. A man who wants a drink would take it and go about his business, if an anti-treating law were rigidly enforced, and not feel under obligations to take another simply because some friend happened to be drinking and asked him to join him. When it comes to a party of half a dozen, each feeling it incumbent upon him to "treat the crowd," the result is by no means conjectural. Economy, health and temperance all call for such a law as is proposed.

Dr. Kingsley, a prominent western educator, in addressing a recent teachers' meeting, advised his hearers to read the daily newspapers diligently. It is the only way to keep in touch with the events of the world, and the doctor said that he received more inspiration from the newspapers than from any other source. The way to learn current history is to read of it while it is transpiring. If you want to learn a great deal about the history of our country for the last 40 years which is not true," he remarked, "read any of the histories published during that period." A man who has read the newspapers for that period has an insight into history that the books can't give him.

Thomas Dunn English is dead at a ripe old age. Although he was at different periods a lawyer, a physician and an editor, doing creditable work in each of these professions, his fame was made as a poet. The simple song "Ben Bolt" is not remarkable as poetry, and "Sweet Alice," from her description, was more silly than agreeable. Yet, such is the hold the song had on the public a generation ago and still retains, it will doubtless live longer than anything else that its gifted author ever said or wrote.

Thousands of women have registered in the big cities of Ohio, so that they can vote next Monday. Thousands more, it is said, would have done so but for the requirement that they tell their age. The ladies should get to work and have the law amended so that a simple declaration that they are over 21 years of age will suffice.

The constantly lengthening list of real estate sales recorded in this paper shows that a great many East Liverpool people have money to invest and are investing it in lots and houses, a very wise and commendable course, which will be a source of great satisfaction in the future. Such investments, where good judgment is exercised in making them, are safe and reasonably sure to yield good returns. All indications point to a season of great activity among home-builders.

The Republican city ticket is a good one and it will unquestionably be elected. Republicans should turn out and make the majority so big that the Democrats won't have the courage to put even half a ticket in the field next time.

Jones, of Arkansas, can now sympathize with Bryan, of Nebraska. The same dose was fatal to the political prospects of both.

The United States Steel corporation earned $111,000,000 during its first year. It looks as if it might manage to worry along.

No genuine soldier has any sympathy for deserters. President Roosevelt is a genuine soldier.

At all events, the poet who wrote "Hail, Gentle Spring!" got what he was shouting for.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Nannie Mackintosh.

Mrs. Nannie Mackintosh, wife of Elmer Mackintosh, died last evening at her home on Broadway, Wellsville, after a short illness. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilcoxen, of the Scotch settlement, and with her husband, removed to Wellsville a few years ago. A three-weeks-old child, with its father, survives. A brief funeral service will be held at the residence Friday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. L. F. Laverty, after which the remains will be taken to the Yellow Creek Presbyterian church, where another service will be held. The remains will be interred in the Yellow Creek cemetery.

Lawrence A. Hall.

Lawrence A. Hall, of Sewickley, who for the past 24 years has been connected with the Pennsylvania company, died last night, aged 48 years. He was a native of Marietta, but had resided in Sewickley for 14 years. For the past 10 or 12 years he has been connected with the office of the general superintendent of freight transportation and A. B. Starr appointed him his chief clerk about a year ago. He was a brother of Charles Hall, assistant foreman of the machine shops at Wellsville.

A Conference to Be Held by Steyn, Delarey, Schalkburger and Botha.

Pretoria, April 2.—President Steyn and General Delarey have been located, and a meeting between them and Acting President Schalkburger is expected to be arranged without further delay. It is reported that General Botha will also attend the conference.

Commandant Meays has sent word that his command will abide by the decision of the Boer government.

Commandant DeVilliers, who has been operating in the Kimberly district, has sent in a flag of truce, asking for terms.

The peace movement, however, has in no way interfered with the military operations. The British are again sweeping the northwest districts of the Orange River Colony, where it is believed they have about a thousand of General DeWet's men within the cordon.

Heidelberg, Transvaal, April 2.—Commandant Alberts has called a meeting of the Boers in his district to take place 35 miles east of the Springs station in order to discuss the proposal for a general surrender. It is said that General Hans Botha has summoned a similar meeting at Amsterdam.

Surrenders are occurring daily in the Standerton district.

39 KILLED IN A WRECK.

Forty-Five Others Injured in Accident in Transvaal.

Pretoria, April 2.—Thirty-nine British soldiers were killed and 45 were injured in railroad wreck March 30 near Barberton, Transvaal colony.

London, April 2.—The war office, in reporting the railroad wreck at Barberton, Transvaal colony, merely says that it was accidental. The victims nearly all belonged to the Hampshire regiment.

It is proposed to make the senseless habit of treating in saloons unlawful in Ohio. Such an enactment would undoubtedly receive the endorsement of every friend of temperance. Drinking men will tell you—and they ought to know—that treating is responsible for a large share of the drunkenness that is prevalent in every city. A man who wants a drink would take it and go about his business, if an anti-treating law were rigidly enforced, and not feel under obligations to take another simply because some friend happened to be drinking and asked him to join him. When it comes to a party of half a dozen, each feeling it incumbent upon him to "treat the crowd," the result is by no means conjectural. Economy, health and temperance all call for such a law as is proposed.

Dr. Kingsley, a prominent western educator, in addressing a recent teachers' meeting, advised his hearers to read the daily newspapers diligently. It is the only way to keep in touch with the events of the world, and the doctor said that he received more inspiration from the newspapers than from any other source. The way to learn current history is to read of it while it is transpiring. "If you want to learn a great deal about the history of our country for the last 40 years which is not true," he remarked, "read any of the histories published during that period." A man who has read the newspapers for that period has an insight into history that the books can't give him.

Thomas Dunn English is dead at a ripe old age. Although he was at different periods a lawyer, a physician and an editor, doing creditable work in each of these professions, his fame was made as a poet. The simple song "Ben Bolt" is not remarkable as poetry, and "Sweet Alice," from her description, was more silly than agreeable. Yet, such is the hold the song had on the public a generation ago and still retains, it will doubtless live longer than anything else that its gifted author ever said or wrote.

Thousands of women have registered in the big cities of Ohio, so that they can vote next Monday. Thousands more, it is said, would have done so but for the requirement that they tell their age. The ladies should get to work and have the law amended so that a simple declaration that they are over 21 years of age will suffice.

The constantly lengthening list of real estate sales recorded in this paper shows that a great many East Liverpool people have money to invest and are investing it in lots and houses, a very wise and commendable course, which will be a source of great satisfaction in the future. Such investments, where good judgment is exercised in making them, are safe and reasonably sure to yield good returns. All indications point to a season of great activity among home-builders.

The Republican city ticket is a good one and it will unquestionably be elected. Republicans should turn out and make the majority so big that the Democrats won't have the courage to put even half a ticket in the field next time.

Jones, of Arkansas, can now sympathize with Bryan, of Nebraska. The same dose was fatal to the political prospects of both.

The United States Steel corporation earned $111,000,000 during its first year. It looks as if it might manage to worry along.

No genuine soldier has any sympathy for deserters. President Roosevelt is a genuine soldier.

At all events, the poet who wrote "Hail, Gentle Spring!" got what he was shouting for.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Nannie Mackintosh. Mrs. Nannie Mackintosh, wife of Elmer Mackintosh, died last evening at her home on Broadway, Wellsville, after a short illness. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilcoxen, of the Scotch settlement, and with her husband, removed to Wellsville a few years ago. A three-weeks-old child, with its father, survives. A brief funeral service will be held at the residence Friday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. L. F. Laverty, after which the remains will be taken to the Yellow Creek Presbyterian church, where another service will be held. The remains will be interred in the Yellow Creek cemetery.

Lawrence A. Hall. Lawrence A. Hall, of Sewickley, who for the past 24 years has been connected with the Pennsylvania company, died last night, aged 48 years. He was a native of Marietta, but had resided in Sewickley for 14 years. For the past 10 or 12 years he has been connected with the office of the general superintendent of freight transportation and A. Starr appointed him his chief clerk about a year ago. He was a brother of Charles Hall, assistant foreman of the machine shop at Wellsville.

PEACE MOVEMENT UNDER WAY.

A Conference to Be Held by Steyn, Delarey, Schalkburger and Botha.

Pretoria, April 2.—President Steyn and General Delarey have been located, and a meeting between them and Acting President Schalkburger is expected to be arranged without further delay. It is reported that General Botha will also attend the conference.

Commandant Meays has sent word that his command will abide by the decision of the Boer government.

Commandant DeVilliers, who has been operating in the Kimberly district, has sent in a flag of truce, asking for terms.

The peace movement, however, has no way interfered with the military operations. The British are again sweeping the northwest districts of the Orange River Colony, where it is believed they have about a thousand of General DeWet's men within the cordon.

Heidelberg, Transvaal, April 2.—Commandant Alberts has called a meeting of the Boers in his district to take place 35 miles east of the Springs station in order to discuss the proposal for a general surrender. It is said that General Hans Botha has summoned a similar meeting at Amsterdam.

Surrenders are occurring daily in the Standerton district.

Forty-Five Others Injured in Accident in Transvaal.

Pretoria, April 2.—Thirty-nine British soldiers were killed and 45 were injured in a railroad wreck March 30 near Barberton, Transvaal colony.

DIVORCE AND SHOOTING

In Which a Former Wellsville Woman Figured—Lost Her Home.

Mrs. Park Rex McClain, or Miss Emma Houser, formerly of Wellsville, who was divorced at Steubenville on Monday, has lost her home and is now among the Harrison county hills near Cadiz, according to a Steubenville paper. Mrs. McClain, it is said, showed a partiality to men other than her husband who works at the ice plant.

A few days ago she procured a room in a house recently purchased by newcomers in Steubenville who became suspicious regarding numerous male "relatives" who called, and she was ordered to leave.

Sunday night some person appeared at the house and shot off a revolver, the bullet crashing through an upstairs window and passing close to the head of a roomer who was lying asleep in bed. It is thought the shooter wanted to kill Mrs. McClain.

When near the cemetery, a collision with a telephone pole put a quick end to their flight. The wagon was damaged, but the horses escaped without injury.

JUTTE GIVEN A VINDICATION

Forgery Indictment Against Him Withdrawn In the Circuit Court.

TO A MISUNDERSTANDING

Was the Indictment Due in First Place. Dispute Arose of the Transfer of East Liverpool Bridge Bonds. Court Proceedings.

An echo of the East Liverpool bridge dispute was heard yesterday at New Cumberland when the indictment of W. C. Jutte, of Pittsburg, for forgery, came up in circuit court.

At the meeting of the grand jury of Hancock county during the first week of November, 1901, a true bill for forgery was found against Jutte. The particulars, as given at the time, are as follows:

Mr. Jutte purchased East Liverpool bridge stock, and it appeared that John Shrader executed a release of a judgment which he held against the bridge company and which amounted to about $21,000.

On January 1, 1901, Jutte's attorney, Henry C. Davis, it was alleged, presented to A. S. Cooper, clerk of courts of Hancock county, a writing which appeared to be an assignment of judgment for $21,000 with the name of W. S. Smoot as the party to whom judgment was assigned.

Mr. Shrader denied that ever executed an assignment of judgment and said the name of W. S. Smoot was inserted without his consent or knowledge and that the word "release" was erased from the writing and that the word "assigned" was substituted.

Mr. Jutte yesterday produced the original papers signed by Mr. Shrader and acknowledged by O. C. Marshall, notary public. The assignment was blank and the contract made by Mr. Shrader authorized Mr. Jutte to insert the name of an assignee. Jutte inserted the name. Another original paper was the original release for the alleged forgery.

When these papers were shown to Prosecuting Attorney J. A. McKenzie, he immediately asked Judge Harvey to dismiss the indictment, which was done, so that Jutte goes clear even of suspicion.

V. B. Archer, the leading counsel for Jutte, after the case was dismissed, said the indictment was found under a total misapprehension of the prosecution, witness and prosecuting attorney of the true state of facts.

MURDERS BY A SERVANT.

Negro Killed Mother and Daughter and Probably Fatally Wounded Another Child.

Philadelphia, April 2.—William Lane aged 35, a colored servant employed by Charles F. Furbush, of No. 652 North Fifteenth street, yesterday shot and killed Mrs. Ellen Furbush, aged 42 years and her daughter Madeline N. Furbush, aged 10 years, and a daughter. cmdmfwyuluf m hr hr ffff probably wounded Eloise Furbush, aged 7 years another daughter. The latter is not expected to live.

Lane escaped, but was caught later. He had been suspected of stealing money from his employer and today a warrant was sworn out for his arrest by Mrs. Furbush. Lane learned this and committed the crime in revenge.

Mrs. Furbush and Eloise were on the third floor of the house and Madeline was on roller skates in front of the house. After killing the mother and injuring one child, Lane called Madeline into the house and she followed him upstairs to the third story, where he shot her dead. He then left the house.

FOR VANDYKE LIQUOR BILL.

Methodist Episcopal Conference, at Bellefonte, Pa., Asked For Its Passage.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 2.—At the opening of the M. E. conference yesterday the board of stewards on necessitous cases distributed to the indigent ministers and ministers' widows over $8,000.

A resolution was passed calling on the next session of the legislature to pass the Vandyke bill regulating the sale of liquor, which was defeated at the last session. In speaking for the resolution, Rev. J. B. Mann declared he knew of Methodist ministers who even signed petitions for license. Rev. E. H. Yocom, G. W. Stevens, J. F. Anderson, T. S. Wilcox and J. A. Wood were elected delegates to the Anti-Saloon League convention, to be held in Altoona.

An unusually prolonged and heated discussion was provoked over the report of the committee on constitutional prohibition, which was finally voted down because it was deemed too much of a dictation on the ministers' ballot. The last year's reports were then reaffirmed.

At 11 o'clock the conference went into secret session.

DIVORCE AND SHOOTING

In Which a Former Wellsville Woman Figured—Lost Her Home.

Mrs. Park Rex McClain, or Miss Emma Houser, formerly of Wellsville, who was divorced at Steubenville on Monday, has lost her home and is now among the Harrison county hills near Cadiz, according to a Steubenville paper. Mrs. McClain, it is said, showed a partiality to men other than her husband who works at the ice plant. A few days ago she procured a room in a house recently purchased by newcomers in Steubenville who became suspicious regarding numerous male "relatives" who called, and she was ordered to leave.

Sunday night some person appeared at the house and shot off a revolver, the bullet crashing through an upstairs window and passing close to the head of a roomer who was lying asleep in bed. It is thought the shooter wanted to kill Mrs. McClain.

TEAM RAN AWAY

The Horse Taking Fright at a Piece of Paper in the Street.

A team of horses belonging to the Standard Oil company and driven by Frank Duff while left standing alone on Commerce street became frightened at a piece of flying paper and started on a terrific run up Commerce street to Tenth street, where they made an abrupt turn and continued their mad dash up toward Spring Hill cemetery.

When near the cemetery, a collision with a telephone pole put a quick end to their flight. The wagon was damaged, but the horses escaped without injury.

Lafayette Heiner, the Eighteenth street confectioner and manufacturer, is in a crippled condition as the result of an accident. He was standing in close proximity to a cellar door at the rear of his home when he unthinkingly took a backward step and fell to the bottom of the cellar.

That he escaped with a severe shaking up and several bad bruises is considered fortunate, as the distance he fell is fully eight feet and he might have sustained permanent injuries.

JUTTE GIVEN A VINDICATION

Forgery Indictment Against Him Withdrawn In the Circuit Court.

TO A MISUNDERSTANDING

Was the Indictment Due in First Place. Dispute Arose of the Transfer of East Liverpool Bridge Bonds. Court Proceedings.

An echo of the East Liverpool bridge dispute was heard yesterday at New Cumberland when the indictment of W. C. Jutte, of Pittsburgh, for forgery, came up in circuit court.

At the meeting of the grand jury of Hancock county during the first week of November, 1901, a true bill for forgery was found against Jutte. The particulars, as given at the time, are as follows:

Mr. Jutte purchased East Liverpool bridge stock, and it appeared that John Shrader executed a release of a judgment which he held against the bridge company and which amounted to about $21,000.

On January 1, 1901, Jutte's attorney, Henry C. Davis, it was alleged, presented to A. S. Cooper, clerk of courts of Hancock county, a writing which appeared to be an assignment of judgment for $21,000 with the name of W. S. Smoot as the party to whom judgment was assigned.

Mr. Shrader denied that ever executed an assignment of judgment and said the name of W. S. Smoot was inserted without his consent or knowledge and that the word "release" was erased from the writing and that the word "assigned" was substituted.

Mr. Jutte yesterday produced the original papers signed by Mr. Shrader and acknowledged by O. C. Marshall, notary public. The assignment was blank and the contract made by Mr. Shrader authorized Mr. Jutte to insert the name of an assignee. Jutte inserted the name. Another original paper was the original release for the alleged forgery.

When these papers were shown to Prosecuting Attorney J. A. McKenzie, he immediately asked Judge Harvey to dismiss the indictment, which was done, so that Jutte goes clear even of suspicion.

V. B. Archer, the leading counsel for Jutte, after the case was dismissed, said the indictment was found under a total misapprehension of the prosecution, witness and prosecuting attorney of the true state of facts.

FOR VANDYKE LIQUOR BILL.

Methodist Episcopal Conference, at

Bellefonte, Pa., Asked For

Its Passage.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 2.—At the opening of the M. E. conference yesterday the board of stewards on neccesitous cases distributed to the intelligent ministers and ministers' widows over $8,000.

A resolution was passed calling on the next session of the legislature to pass the Vandyke bill regulating the sale of liquor, which was defeated at the last session. In speaking for the resolution, Rev. J. B. Mann declared he knew of Methodist ministers who even signed petitions for license. Rev. E. H. Yocom, G. W. Stevens, J. F. Anderson, T. S. Wilcox and J. A. Wood were elected delegates to the Anti-Saloon League convention, to be held in Altoona.

An unusually prolonged and heated discussion was provoked over the report of the committee on constitutional prohibition, which was finally voted down because it was deemed too much of a dictation on the ministers' ballot. The last year's reports were then reaffirmed.

At 11 o'clock the conference went into secret session.

Some of the Features of the Session of the Stock Market,

BRIBERY CHARGES.

Gron Appeared as Witness In Investigation of Danish Treaty Allegations.

GROSVENOR ALSO A WITNESS.

Gron Denied He Knew of Any Member of House or Senate Who Had Been Bribed or Whom Any One Attempted to Bribe.

Washington, April 2.—The investigation of charges made in connection with the Danish West Indies purchase was begun yesterday before the special committee appointed by Speaker Henderson. Beside the members of the committee there was present Niels Gron, who brought the charges to the attention of Representative Richardson and quite a number of interested spectators.

Mr. Gron was the first witness sworn by Mr. Daizell. He testified in part that in February last parties in Copenhagen, who opposed the transfer of the Danish West Indies to the United States conferred with him and brought to his attention the Christmas report.

Members of Danish Congress.

Chairman Daizell asked who those parties were. The witness said they were members of the Danish upper house, but he did not think it proper to give their names. Mr. Gron said he was at present the representative in this country of these parties.

Mr. Gron gave way temporarily to Representative Alexander, of Buffalo, who desired to make a complete disclaimer of any knowledge of Christmas or the Danish transactions.

Continuing his statement, Mr. Gron explained how the Danish parties opposing a sale of the islands had persuaded him to come to Washington and place the Christmas report before congress and the public, so that the facts would be known. He told of having secured a note of introduction to General Grosvenor, of Ohio; of arranging to meet the latter in Washington, his purpose being, he said, to carry out assurances given at Copenhagen that he would place the matter before influential men and thus bring it to the attention of congress and the public. Mr. Gron told in great detail of bringing the papers before General Grosvenor, who at first seemed quite indignant. Mr. Gron said, and spoke of laying the matter before the proper parties in order that suitable action might be taken. The witness said that later General Grosvenor concluded that it would be proper to lay the matter before the secretary of state. This was done and Mr. Gron said he learned that the state department held that it could take no action and that the authorities here had in no way committed themselves to Christmas.

Gron said that after General Grosvenor had decided not to proceed with the matter he (Gron) had prepared a statement for the Associated Press and had asked Mr. Crane, a newspaper man, to send some one from the Associated Press to him for the statement, and also to General Grosvenor for assurances as to Gron's standing. He learned later through Mr. Crane that General Grosvenor said he knew nothing about it.

He said he was informed the day after he submitted the statement that the Associated Press could not use it. Afterward, he said, he submitted the statement to several newspapers and more or less of it was printed.

Showed It to Richardson.

The witness then detailed how he had placed the matter before Representatives Richardson and Underwood, who had gone over the papers.

"What was your object in bringing it before members?" asked Mr. Daizell.

"To get it into the house and before the American people," answered the witness.

He referred to the reports that he (Gron) had himself been trying to obtain a commission for the sale of the islands and that the whole matter was a quarrel between Christmas and himself over the commission. This Mr. Gron denied, and in support read a letter stating that an old alliance between certain Danish men and Americans in the fall of 1897 was declared off 18 months ago. He mentioned the names of H. H. Rogers, Charles B. Flint and himself as the president for appointment as minister to Siam.

Mr. Gron said he was a Republican; had canvassed for that party in 1892 and 1896, and in 1897 had been a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidacy, signed by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

In reply to specific questions, he said he knew of no senator or representative who had been bribed or whom any one had attempted to bribe. At the state department he had only personally seen Mr. Kasson. Mr. Gron was then excused.

DO YOU SEE THE TWO CHESTNUTS ONE OF THE BOYS HAS GATHERED?

In negotiating the sale of the islands Mr. Gron said he undertook to re-open the negotiations after the war. The committees in Copenhagen and America had not been dissolved. Christmas came to the United States in December, 1899. Mr. Gron was closely questioned as to whether a proposition was made for Christmas and Rogers and himself to divide the commission. He replied that there were various propositions. Asked as to the threat attributed to Rogers in the Christmas report (in which Rogers was made to say that he had 28 votes in the senate and could defeat the negotiations), Mr. Gron said he was never present at an interview between Rogers and Christmas. He had never heard Mr. Rogers make such a threat.

No Contract With Christmas.

He denied absolutely the statement that he (Gron) had signed a contract with Christmas by which he (Gron) and Rogers were to have two-thirds of the commission. He had never made any contract of any character with Christmas, but the latter had made over a power of attorney to him, which later he (Gron) repudiated. Mr. Rogers saw Christmas, he testified, but once. After that Rogers refused to see Christmas or answer his letters or telegrams.

As to the Christmas interviews, in which Christmas was made to say that he had had negotiations with Abner McKinley, which Christmas, in his report, declared had been instigated by Gron, the witness said that he had no connection with them. Mr. Hitt asked him specifically if he knew what press associations were referred to in the Christmas reports.

"I do not know," replied Mr. Gron. At this point the committee took a recess until 2 o'clock.

When the investigation was resumed after recess Representative Grosvenor appeared and made a statement concerning the subject. He spoke of receiving the note introducing Mr. Gron, and of going over the papers with him. At that time Mr. Grosvenor felt that the matter should be looked into with a view of ascertaining if there was any irregularity. With that end in view he conferred with Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, and asked that if an appropriation bill for the Danish purchase came in that action on it be deferred until Mr. Grosvenor returned from a western trip and had an opportunity to go over the papers. On his return to the city Mr. Grosvenor saw Secretary Hay in relation to the matter. It was the view of the secretary of state that there was nothing in the charges of which cognizance should be taken.

Hanna Had Appointed Him.

Resuming his testimony, Mr. Gron related his connection with the Scandinavian department of the national Republican committee in 1896, to which place, he said, Senator Hanna had appointed him. Later, he said Senator Hanna gave him a letter of recommendation to the two Massachusetts senators, Messrs. Hoar and Lodge, and the latter in turn joined in a letter recommending Gron to the president for appointment as minister to Siam.

Mr. Gron said he was a Republican; had canvassed for that party in 1892 and 1896, and in 1897 had been a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidacy, signed by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

In reply to specific questions, he said he knew of no senator or representative who had been bribed or whom any one had attempted to bribe. At the state department he had only personally seen Mr. Kasson. Mr. Gron was then excused.

Chairman Daizell announced that he had summoned Abner McKale, Colonel Browne and Fischer Hansen, and that they would appear on Thursday.

Mrs. Mitchell was carried to a neighbor's house very seriously burned. Physicians started for the scene.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more prone from such delays than the mountain systems. For National University.

Washington, April 2.—Senator Doe, chairman of the committee to establish the university of the United States, submitted an affirmative report on behalf of that committee yesterday on a bill to establish a national university. The bill is the one introduced by the chairman and differs from those introduced by Senators Depew and Wellington chiefly in that it lessens the number of regents and raises the standard of admission for students in the field of general studies, so that they must already have such attainments as represented by the degree of master of arts instead of bachelor, as under the former bills.

Mr. Gron gave way temporarily to Representative Alexander, of Buffalo, who desired to make complete disclaimer of any knowledge of Christmas or the Danish transactions.

Continuing his statement, Mr. Gron explained how the Danish parties opposing a sale of the islands had persuaded him to come to Washington and place the Christmas report before congress and the public, so that the facts would be known. He told of having secured a note of introduction to General Grosvenor, of Ohio; of arranging to meet the latter in Washington, his purpose being, he said, to carry out assurances given at Copenhagen that he would place the matter before influential men and thus bring it to the attention of congress and the public. Mr. Gron told in great detail of bringing the papers before General Grosvenor, who at first seemed quite indignant. Mr. Gron said, and spoke of laying the matter before the proper parties in order that suitable action might be taken. The witness said that later General Grosvenor concluded that it would be proper to lay the matter before the secretary of state. This was done and Mr. Gron said he learned that the state department held that it could take no action and that the authorities here had in no way committed themselves to Christmas.

Gron said that after General Grosvenor had decided not to proceed with the matter he (Gron) had prepared a statement for the Associated Press and had asked Mr. Crane, a newspaper man, to send some one from the Associated Press to him for the statement, and also to General Grosvenor for assurances as to Gron's standing. He learned later through Mr. Crane that General Grosvenor said he knew nothing about it.

He said he was informed the day after he submitted the statement that the Associated Press could not use it. Afterward, he said, he submitted it to several newspapers more or less of it was printed.

Showed It to Richardson.

The witness then detailed how he had placed the matter before Representatives Richardson and Underwood, who had gone over the papers.

"What was your object in bringing it before members?" asked Mr. Daizell.

"To get it into the house and before the American people," answered the witness.

He referred to the reports that he (Gron) had himself been trying to obtain a commission for the islands and that the whole matter was a quarrel between Christmas and himself over the commission. This Mr. Gron denied, and in support read a letter stating that an old alliance between certain Danish men and Americans in the fall of 1897 was declared off 18 months ago. He mentioned the names of H. H. Rogers, Charles B. Flint and himself as the

DO YOU SEE THE TWO CHESTNUTS ONE OF THE BOYS HAS GATHERED?

In negotiating the sale of the islands

Mr. Gron said he undertook to re-open the negotiations after the war. The committees in Copenhagen and America had not been dissolved.

Christmas came to the United States in December, 1899. Mr. Gron was closely questioned as to whether a proposition was made for Christmas and Rogers and himself to divide the commission. He replied that there were various propositions. Asked as to the threat attributed to Rogers in the Christmas report (in which Rogers was made to say that he had 28 votes in the senate and could defeat the negotiations), Mr. Gron said he was never present at an interview between Rogers and Christmas. He had never heard Mr. Rogers make such a threat.

No Contract With Christmas.

He denied absolutely the statement that he (Gron) had signed a contract with Christmas by which he (Gron) and Rogers were to have two-thirds of the commission. He had never made any contract of any character with Christmas, but the latter had made over a power of attorney to him, which later he (Gron) repudiated. Mr. Rogers saw Christmas, he testified, but once. After that Rogers refused to see Christmas or answer his letters or telegrams.

As to the Christmas interviews, in which Christmas was made to say that he had had negotiations with Abner McKinley, which Christmas, in his report, declared had been instigated by Gron, the witness said that he had no connection with them. Mr. Hitt asked him specifically if he knew what press associations were referred to in the Christmas reports.

"I do not know," replied Mr. Gron.

At this point the committee took a recess until 2 o'clock.

When the investigation was re-summed after recess Representative Grosvenor appeared and made a statement concerning the subject. He spoke of receiving the note introducing Mr. Gron, and of going over the papers with him. At that time Mr. Grosvenor felt that the matter should be looked into with a view of ascertaining if there was any irregularity.

With that end in view he conferred with Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, and asked that an appropriation bill for the Danish purchase came in that action on it be deferred until Mr. Grosvenor returned from a western trip and had an opportunity to go over the papers.

On his return to the city Mr. Grosvenor saw Secretary Hay in relation to the matter. It was the view of the secretary of state that there was nothing in the charges of which cognizance should be taken.

Hanna Had Appointed Him.

Resuming his testimony, Mr. Gron related his connection with the Scandinavian department of the national Republican committee in 1896, to which place, he said, Senator Hanna had appointed him. Later, he said, Senator Hanna gave him a letter of recommendation to the two Massachusetts senators, Messrs. Hoar and Lodge, and the latter in turn joined in a letter recommending Gron to the president for appointment as minister to Siam.

Mr. Gron said he was a Republican; had canvassed for that party in 1892 and 1896, and in 1897 had been a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidacy, signed by Senator Culom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

In reply to specific questions, he said he knew of no senator or representative who had been bribed or whom any one had attempted to bribe. At the state department he had only personally seen Mr. Kasson. Mr. Gron was then excused.

Chairman Daizell announced that he had summoned Abner McKelvey, Colonel Browne and Fischer Hansen, and that they would appear on Thursday.

TO VOTE ON THURSDAY.

Agreement Reached on the Oleomarine Bill.

Washington, April 2.—An agreement was reached by the senate yesterday to vote on the pending oleomarine bill before adjournment next Thursday.

Debate on the measure was continued throughout yesterday's session. Mr. Heifeld, of Idaho, opposed the bill, because he believed that it

PERISHED IN A FIRE.

Father and Five Children Are Burned to Death, Near Johnstown, Pa.

THE MOTHER SERIOUSLY BURNED

She Was Carried to a Neighbor's House—Scene of the Fire Was at Prosser's Hollow, About Three Miles From Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa., April 2.—News reached this city that a man named Phillip Mitchell and his five children were burned to death last night in their home in Prosser Hollow, a secluded settlement about three miles from here. Mrs. Mitchell was carried to a neighbor's house very seriously burned. Physicians started for the scene.

The Colonel's Joke.
"Silence," said the man who quotes, "is golden."

"Well," answered Colonel Stilwell, "I don't know about silence being golden. But I must admit that I know of several people in the mountains who have made considerable money out of a still."—Washington Star.

Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, advocated the bill because it was a protest against fraud and against an industry "which depended for its success upon duplicity and dishonesty."

Mr. Spooner, of Wisconsin, made an extended legal and constitutional argument in support of the measure. He said such a tax as it imposed, in his opinion, was to the interest of the whole people.

Mr. Bailey, of Texas, began an argument in opposition to the bill, but had not concluded when the senate adjourned.

MRS DENNIS INSANE.

Application Made to Transfer Her to an Asylum.

Washington, April 2.—Steps were taken yesterday to have Mrs. Ida Gilbert Dennis, the dressmaker who was assaulted four months ago, removed to the government hospital for the insane or some private institution.

It is said that while all her wounds have healed and she is apparently stronger than she was a month ago, her ravings interfere with the proper treatment of other patients in the hospital where she was taken soon after the assault was committed.

The attending physicians are satisfied that her mind never will be restored, and it has been deemed best to remove her to an institution entirely devoted to the care and treatment of the insane. No clue has yet been found to the perpetrator of the crime.

Shot Mother and Attempted Suicide.

Barkhamstead, Conn., April 2.—Miss Elsie D. Richards, aged 52 years, while temporary insane, shot her mother, Mrs. Emily Richards, aged 74 years, yesterday and then attempted to commit suicide by shooting herself. The mother is seriously wounded, but may recover. The daughter is in a precarious condition and is not expected to live.

For National University.

Washington, April 2.—Senator Deboe, chairman of the committee to establish the university of the United States, submitted an affirmative report on behalf of that committee yesterday on a bill to establish a national university. The bill is the one introduced by the chairman and differs from those introduced by Senators Depew and Wellington chiefly in that it lessens the number of regents and raises the standard of admission for students in the field of general studies, so that they must already have such attainments as represented by the degree of master of arts instead of bachelor, as under the former bills.

10,000 TO STRIKE.

Rochester and Pittsburg Iron and Coal Co. Men Are Ordered Out.

WILL MAKE OTHERS IDLE.

Nearly as Many Railroaders Will Be Without Work, In Consequence. Caused by Refusal of Manager to Sign Scale.

Altoona, Pa., April 2.—After mass meetings of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company's miners were held at Punxsutawney and Sykesville yesterday, the threatened strike was formally declared. It involves 10,000 miners and will have the effect of curtailing the employment of nearly as many more railroad men employed by the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad company, whose freight traffic will be nearly paralyzed in consequence of the strike. Not a mine worker employed by the Rochester and Pittsburg company will be at work today, except the pumpers and track layers, it being agreed to keep these men at work to protect the mines.

It was decided by a vote, however, that if General Manager L. W. Robinson should attempt to evict the strikers from their homes, many of which are owned by the company, the pumpers and track layers will also be called out and the mines allowed to flood. It was also decided that any overtures for a settlement must come from Robinson. Any attempt to import other miners will be resisted. The strikers have assurance of support from the district and national treasures of the United Miners' Workers of America.

The strike was ordered not for an advance in wages, but because Lucien W. Robinson, general manager of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company, has refused to sign the agreement of the miners' and operators' conference at Altoona last week. The agreement at that conference was the same as during the last year, except that the mines along the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railway, all of which are managed by Mr. Robinson, the miners being granted their demand to have mules haul the cars out instead of pushing them, as is the case in the mines of thin veins.

Regarding the conference Mr. Robinson said to the Associated Press representative yesterday at Punxsutawney:

"The Altoona conference would not concede to the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company the same conditions of labor as to other operators present on the ground that in thin seams of coal the miner was willing to perform more labor for the same pay than in the thick seams of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company."

Mr. Robinson says his company proposed to pay the same scale of wages for mining their thick seams as other operators paid in the thin seams of coal, but insisted it was unfair to discriminate against his company in not granting the same rights as the Altoona conference agreed to with all other operators as to handling cars, the same in thick seams as in thin. Mr. Robinson also agreed to meet any price for mining in any competitive field.

The miners have been earning better wages than ever before, but they say they are tired of pushing cars.

Directors Vote to Submit to Stockholders Proposition to Retire Millions of Stock.

New York, April 2.—The directors of the United States Steel Corporation, in quarterly meeting here yesterday, gave formal approval to the conversion plan under which it is proposed to retire preferred stock to the amount of $200,000,000 upon which dividends are paid at the rate of 7 per cent per annum and issue bonds to a total of $250,000,000 with interest fixed at 5 per cent.

May 19 was fixed as the date upon which the project will be submitted to the shareholders. The directors also issued a statement showing that the earnings of the corporation for the first year of its existence, which ended on March 31, with the last month estimated, reached a total of $111,067,195.

Governor Nash yesterday afternoon sent to the legislature a special message urging the passage of the corporation and excise tax bills and other measures carrying out the administration's plan for reform in taxation.

The Seibert bill, retaining the Miami and Erie canal, and the north division of the Ohio canal, passed the house yesterday. It provides for the appointment of a commission by the governor, which will investigate the remaining canal property and report to the governor as to whether or not it can be placed upon a profit-paying basis. Section 2 of the bill provides that if at any time in the future the canals shall be abandoned by the state all boats then in operation and made worthless by the abandonment shall be paid for by the state at their actual value in money.

The Toledo police ripper passed the senate yesterday. The bill provides for the appointment of a bipartisan police board of four members, which shall have full control over the police department of that city. The police commission now consists of four members, who are elected by the people, but it appears that the Democrats are in majority, and the bill was passed, it was said to get the department away from Mayor Jones' control.

10,000 TO STRIKE.

Rochester and Pittsburg Iron and Coal Co. Men Are Ordered Out.

WILL MAKE OTHERS IDLE.

Nearly as Many Railroaders Will Be Without Work, In Consequence. Caused by Refusal of Manager to Sign Scale.

Altoona, Pa., April 2.—After mass meetings of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company's miners were held at Punxsutawney and Sykesville yesterday, the threatened strike was formally declared. It involves 10,000 miners and will have the effect of curtailing the employment of nearly as many more railroad men employed by the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad company, whose freight traffic will be nearly paralyzed in consequence of the strike. Not a mine worker employed by the Rochester and Pittsburg company will be at work today, except the pumpers and track layers, it being agreed to keep these men at work to protect the mines.

It was decided by a vote, however, that if General Manager L. W. Robinson should attempt to evict the strikers from their homes, many of which are owned by the company, the pumpers and track layers will also be called out and the mines allowed to flood. It was also decided that any overtures for a settlement must come from Robinson. Any attempt to import other miners will be resisted. The strikers have assurance of support from the district and national treasuries of the United Mine Workers of America.

The strike was ordered not for an advance in wages, but because Lucien W. Robinson, general manager of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company, has refused to sign the agreement of the miners' and operators' conference at Altoona last week. The agreement at that conference was the same as during the last year, except that the mines along the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg rail way, all of which are managed by Mr. Robinson, the miners being granted their demand to have mules haul the cars out instead of pushing them, as is the case in the mines of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company.

Regarding the conference Mr. Robison said to the Associated Press representative yesterday at Punxsutawney:

"The Altoona conference would not concede to the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company the same conditions of labor as to other operators present on the ground that in thin seams of coal the miner was willing to perform more labor for the same pay than in the thick seams of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company."

Mr. Robinson says his company proposed to pay the same scale of wages for mining their thick seams as other operators paid in the thin seams of coal, but insisted it was unfair to discriminate against his company in not granting the same rights as the Altoona conference agreed to with all other operators as to handling cars, the same in thick seams as in thin. Mr. Robinson also agreed to meet any price for mining in any competitive field.

The miners have been earning better wages than ever before, but they say they are tired of pushing cars.

COMBINE'S IMMENSE EARNINGS.

Directors Vote to Submit to Stockholders Proposition to retire Millions of Stock.

New York, April 2.—The directors of the United States Steel Corporation, in quarterly meeting here yesterday, gave formal approval to the conversion plan under which it is proposed to retire preferred stock to the amount of $200,000,000 upon which dividends are paid at the rate of 7 per cent per annum and issue bonds to a total of $250,000,000 with interest fixed at 5 per cent.

May 19 was fixed as the date upon which the project will be submitted to the shareholders. The directors also issued a statement showing that the earnings of the corporation for the first year of its existence, which ended on March 31, with the last month estimated, reached a total of $111,067,195.

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

At an Afternoon And Evening Reception at the Steinfield Home.

About 50 of the friends of Mrs. Louis Steinfield yesterday afternoon responded to an invitation to attend a reception. In the house large cards were tacked here and there in conspicuous places, bearing the ominous words "Paint." Many of the ladies wearing fine gowns were especially careful not to come near the signs.

Not until they were seated at the tables did it dawn upon the guests that it was April Fool day. Several practical jokes were perpetrated in the menu served, much to the amusement of the guests.

After the refreshments the games which occupied the attention of the guests were euchre and peanuts. No prizes were awarded, but pretty favors consisting of a tiny rabbit or a decorated egg filled with candy were presented to each guest. The Steinfield home was prettily decorated with pink and white flowers, the same color being carried out in the refreshments.

Mrs. Steinfield was assisted by Misses Anna Thompson and Sara Hall and Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. W. H. Gass and Mrs. Ed Carson.

The afternoon affair was followed by a whist party for which nine tables were provided. Mrs. George Thompson and Mr. Fred Cartwright scored the most points at this game. The favors were the same as in the afternoon. Each of these functions was highly enjoyed.

Mrs. Kelly was assisted by Miss Neyling, Miss Virginia Thompson and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey.

SEVERAL CHARGES

OF FORGERY MADE AGAINST ONE HARRY PHILLIPS.

Pittsburg Officer Looking for the Man Who Swindled O. O. Allison.

A Pittsburg officer is in the city, having arrived yesterday afternoon, who is trying to learn the whereabouts of Harry Phillips, who, it is alleged, forged the name of William Banfield to a check drawn for $22.50, which he succeeded in getting cashed at O. O. Allison's store in Chester.

In addition to this forgery Phillips is accused of having swindled Robert Skemp, manager of the mill at Scottsdale, Pa., from which town he came to Chester on last Friday. He is alleged to have forged a check on Skemp for the same amount he secured by the use of Banfield's name.

There is yet another charge against Phillips, and it is this one that the Pittsburg officer is after him for. The charge is also forgery and Schuster Bros., grocers, of Monessen, Pa., are said to have this time been the victim of Phillips' crooked transactions.

The check which the fugitive forged on the Monessen firm is said to amount to almost $100.

It has been thus far impossible to learn even which direction Phillips went when he left Chester, though he told one of his acquaintances he expected to spend the summer at Charleston, W. Va. The authorities of that city have been notified to watch for the man and have a full description of him.

Phillips is nearly 50 years of age and an expert roller. He was given a job at the Chester mill, but quit after working one turn.

Evening News Review.

19TH YEAR. NO. 78.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

LAST DEAL IS CLOSED FOR A TROLLEY LINE ACROSS THE COUNTY

Positive Information Learned That Rights of Way Have Been Secured.

SCHEME QUIETLY PUT THROUGH

Company Formed by Eastern Capitalists, With L. W. Healy as Manager.

ENTIRE ROUTE IS SURVEYED

And Work Will Be Hurried Through Without Delay — Beaver Valley Traction Company Will Connect Its Lines—Gigantic Project.

From one of the officials of the company projecting the deal, the details were learned by the News Review today of a scheme which has been quietly under way for several weeks, but which has just been carried through for the building of an electric railway from East Liverpool to Lisbon.

As evidence, which cannot be questioned, that the scheme is absolutely certain of success, William Crawford, who has been acting as right-of-way agent for the parties back of the scheme, closed a bargain today for the purchase of the only piece of ground needed for the construction of the line from one end to the other. All land needed has now been secured.

The new line is to be an extension of the East Liverpool railway, and while L. W. Healy will be the manager, it will be controlled by a different company, composed of eastern capitalists. The route, which has been surveyed the entire distance, will start from Smith's Ferry, passing up Beaver creek to the Starkey farm, above Sprucevale, where a tunnel three-fourths of a mile long will have to be built.

It was the tract where the tunnel is to be located that was purchased by Crawford today. After getting through the hill at this point the line will be built along the old Lisbon canal to the upper terminus, where it is expected it will eventually be connected with the line now being built from Alliance to Salem, which will in all probability be extended on to Lisbon.

Another scheme in connection with the East Liverpool-Lisbon line is being put through by the Beaver Valley Traction company, which is extending its road to Smith's Ferry. In fact, the deal to connect the two lines is positively assured for the reason that a contract for the building of a bridge to cross Beaver creek, just north of the county bridge, has been let by the Beaver company, which already has its line surveyed to Vanport.

The cost of the cross-county line is estimated at $170,000, and it is the purpose to have it completed the coming summer. Work on the tunnel will commence in a few weeks.

For unknown reasons the details of the new scheme have been kept quiet, but the information as given the News Review is absolutely reliable.

ONE ARGUMENT HEARD

Hon. R. W. Tayler Speaks on the Case of Dr. W. L. Thompson, of This City.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — The argument of Congressman R. W. Tayler in the case of Dr. W. L. Thompson, of East Liverpool, was heard this morning, to enable Mr. Tayler to return to Washington this afternoon.

The other arguments will not be heard before tomorrow, or until the case of Chamberlain vs. Chamberlain, begun this morning, is finished. It will probably require a night session.

SEVERAL CHANCES

In the Personnel of the Columbian County Telephone Exchange.

Several changes are being made in the working force at the Columbian County Telephone exchange in this city.

H. B. Koplin, who has been in charge of the East Liverpool district for some time, will relinquish the superintendency to A. N. Richardson, of Salem, who has already assumed the duties of the position.

The East Liverpool district takes in Salineville, Wellsville, Irondale, and this city, and is one of the most profitable and important in the county.

Mr. Richardson has been with the company ever since a line was established in this part of the state and is thoroughly practical man. Mr. Koplin will remain in the East Liverpool office for the present.

J. C. Kernahan, who has been assistant to Supt. Koplin, has been transferred to the Salem district.

Taken to the Asylum.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Sheriff Leonard conveyed to the Massillon hospital this morning Gertrude King, of East Liverpool, and Josephine McLaughlin, of Lisbon, both insane.

A BIG MEETING OF ENGINEERS

TO BE HELD IN THE CITY TOMORROW NIGHT.

A Lecture on Electrical Engineering Will Be an Important Feature.

At its hall in the Oyster block, Sixth street, tomorrow evening, East Liverpool association No. 41, National Association of Stationary Engineers, will hold a most interesting meeting. Arrangements have been made for two lectures upon subjects of interest to the profession.

One of the main objects of the national association is to keep abreast of the times in the matter of advancement in the several branches of engineering, both electrical and steam. It is the purpose of the local association to make the meeting here one of the most interesting and profitable in the history of the society. With this object in view arrangements have been made with O. C. Pillichody, of Steubenville, for a lecture on electrical engineering. Mr. Pillichody is chief electrician of the entire Wheeling and Steubenville traction system and is one of the best posted men in this section of the state.

District Examiner Elmer E. Miller, of Canton, will deliver an illustrated lecture upon the license law and its workings in Ohio.

Mr. Miller is a pleasant talker and has a way of explaining things that makes them very easily understood. He takes up the different departments of the work separately and gives the members an opportunity to ask questions after each part has been discussed.

The association will hold no business meeting tomorrow night, and the entire evening will be given over to the program which has been arranged.

Preparations have been made for the entertainment of members of the association from the following societies: East Palestine, No. 58; Salineville, No. 56; Wellsville, No. 61; Lisbon, No. 33; Steubenville, No. 52.

LARGELY ATTENDED

And Marked By Enthusiasm Was the Meeting of Grocers' And Butchers' Clerks.

The grocers' and butchers' clerks met last night in their new quarters above the postoffice. The attendance was unusually large and the meeting enthusiastic.

Aside from initiating several new candidates into the organization, arrangements were started for an entertainment which is to be given by all the local clerks some time during the present month.

Entertained Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, of Thompson avenue, entertained quite a number of their friends at their home. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Drew the Prize.

The case of silver knives, forks and spoons which were sold by ticket for the benefit of Harry Dunn, now in Mercy hospital, goes to W. D. White, of Ford City. Over 550 tickets were sold. The drawing took place last night at Brotherhood hall.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL NELSON A. MILES, WHO MAY RETIRE.

When the civil war began General Miles was a clerk in a crockery store in Boston. He volunteered and at 23 was commanding an army corps. His civil war record was excellent and at the war's close he was a major general. In 1900 he was made a lieutenant general.

FRATERNAL VISIT MADE BY MASON

Mayor Learned He Was at Home and Promptly Summoned Him.

Large Delegation From Monongahela Valley Guests of Local Lodge.

SETTLEMENT SOON MADE ACREEABLY ENTERTAINED

His Request That the Charges Against Him Be Changed Promptly Refused. Daniel Pickall, of Unlucky 13, Fined $5 And Costs.

And Given a Taste of East Liverpool Hospitality — The Program Followed During the Evening — A Most Enjoyable Evening.

Information reached Mayor Davidson yesterday afternoon that James Walters, who was arrested for keeping his saloon open last Sunday evening, was in the city, though it had been reported that he had left. Both the mayor and Chief Thompson telephoned to Walters' place of business, but were informed each time that the proprietor was absent.

Just before supper last evening Mayor Davidson again called up Walters' saloon, and by disguising his voice, succeeded in getting the unsuspecting man to answer. Threatening to send an officer after him unless he immediately put in an appearance for his hearing, the mayor hung up the telephone receiver.

Fearing to take any chances on being escorted to the city hall by an officer, Walters lost no time in reporting to the mayor. He pleaded guilty to the charge against him and was fined $100 and costs. He gave security for the amount and was released.

Previous to entering his plea Walters made the somewhat peculiar request of the mayor that the charge of Sunday selling be changed to that of keeping his saloon open after the hours of closing. The request was, of course, refused.

Daniel Pickall, who was among the unlucky 13 captured in the Walters' raid, and who refused to plead guilty, changed his mind this morning. His disposition to be contrary cost him $5 more than his companions who pleaded guilty. He was assessed $10 and costs and committed to the work house.

There were no arrests last night, but several lodgers occupied the jail.

ANOTHER INSANE WOMAN

Mrs. McLaughlin, of Lisbon, Will Be Taken to the Massillon Hospital.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Mrs. Josephine McLaughlin, of Lisbon, has been adjudged insane and will be committed to the Massillon hospital. She is 29 years old and the mother of three children. Since January last she has been insane, the attack beginning at the time her last child was born. She is constantly under delusions. She says she spent her early life with Queen Victoria; again, that she is soon to be divorced and will then marry two men.

Her mother, some years ago, was in Dixmont hospital, near Pittsburgh.

new to many of them. Souvenirs were procured and taken home by the visitors.

The oldest Mason in the party was Jacob Qualk, Esq., son-in-law of Thomas J. Underwood, of California. He has often visited relatives in this city and has frequently attended sessions of the Masonic lodge while here. Another prominent visitor was Veron Hazzard, editor and owner of the Monongahela Daily Republican, while Herbert Alles is prominently identified with coal interests in the upper Monongahela valley. Mr. Qualk was 88 years old last year, and during his young days was employed on the Ohio river by steamboatmen. He has frequently spoken of the rapid growth of this city and could mind the time when there were only a few houses in the town, which was at that time called Fawcettstown.

NEW ORDER GIVEN BY THE MAYOR

LAST WARNING ISSUED TO THE SALOON MEN.

Unless the Screen Ordinance Is Obeyed They Will Pay the Penalty.

If Mayor Davidson enforces the new order given by him today—and he declares he will—there is a strong probability that several saloon keepers will be called upon to pay fines for violating the screen ordinance.

To a News Review reporter this morning the mayor made the statement that he proposes to make this warning his last one, and henceforth will prosecute every saloonist who is found guilty of neglecting the provisions of the ordinance.

The greatest fault the mayor has to find is with the manner in which the windows of some of the bars are covered with curtains, thus preventing a free and unobstructed view of the interior, as the ordinance prescribes. At several saloons the officers claim they are only able to see back of the bars, while the customers on the other side are shielded by the curtains.

Frosted glass is also forbidden, and the mayor says he wants it removed, or, at least, enough to permit a full view of both the front and back of the bars. The saloons that are not observing the law as the mayor thinks they should are not among the leading ones of the city. Most of them are on the back streets, but the officers have been instructed to keep a close watch on them.

From April to October screens must come down at 10 o'clock p.m., instead of 9.

DIVISION OF DEBT

Desired By the Trustee for the Insolvent Valley Gas Company.

Lisbon, April 2. — (Special) — Horace B. Nicholson, trustee, has filed suit against the Valley Gas company, Wellsville. The petition relates that Nicholson as trustee received a judgment for $12,400 against the insolvent company.

No part of this amount has been paid, and the trustee asks that the court examine the affairs of the company and ascertain the amount due him by reason of his judgment and costs; ascertain who the other creditors are, if any, and the amounts due them, and that the court order each solvent stockholder to pay his ratable share of the judgment.

AROUND THE GLOBE

A Letter Followed Young Morgan, Who Fought Boers in Africa.

Charles O. Morgan has returned to his home in Wellsville from a year's stay in South Africa, where he fought with the British against the Boers for about six months.

He arrived in Wellsville Saturday, and a letter his father, Conductor Morgan, of the East Liverpool railway, wrote to him one year ago, was returned to him at Wellsville Monday. The letter encircled the globe.

Motion Passed at the Meeting of the Union Accepting Terms.

MINORITY IS NOT PLEASED

One of the Number Says the Agreement Is a Complete Backdown.

PAY TO BE $3.50 A DAY

Where a Carpenter Takes Work Outside of His Regular Job—Stonemasons And Contractors Still Trying to Reach Agreement.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of the carpenters' union, held in its hall last night. The call was issued for the purpose of taking action upon the ultimatum submitted by the bosses yesterday, and it was thought the session would be very short, as from the expressions heard yesterday the proposition would be rejected. Strange to say a far different action was taken.

A prominent member of 328 said this morning: "After all that has been said and done, the action of last night was a complete breakdown. The move came as a surprise to a great many of the members, as it was thought all had sufficient backbone to stand out for what had been decided upon in the beginning. The majority not only decided to accept the terms of the contractors, but made further concessions in the matter of individual contracting."

A motion was passed providing that where a carpenter takes work outside his regular job he shall charge at the rate of $3.50 per day. In this way the employees protect the contractors and makes it more profitable for individuals having work done to place it in the hands of a contractor. In other words, as was stated by a journeyman this morning: "We simply bind ourselves to remain employees and sign away our rights to do contracting or the chance of ever becoming a contractor."

The new wage scale of the stonemasons' union has not yet been signed, and it is probable before it is made operative it will look very different from the original.

The conference committee composed of C. J. Goodballe, Jesse Wise and Stephen Hague, of the union, and John Schmelzenbach, Frank Hinton and James Cunningham, from the contractors, has been in session since yesterday morning.

The original demand of the men called for a shorter work day and an increase in pay from $3.51 to $3.87½ per day. Early in the conference the shorter time clause was abandoned by the men, and the matter of wages was taken up. This latter question has occupied the conference since yesterday. It has been given out that the entire matter will be settled this afternoon, but upon what basis no one will venture to say.

GIVEN THE GO-BY

Vanport Will Not Get the Big Standard Steel Car Plant.

The Standard Steel Car company yesterday purchased 300 acres of ground at Butler, Pa., as a site for the proposed new works at a cost of about $90,000. The company also began yesterday the preparation of the site for the new works. These are expected to be completed and ready for operation by August 15.

This is the plant, which, it was reported, was to be built at Vanport, and there will be consequent disappointment there.

EAST ENDNEW WATER SERVICE

Survey Completed for the New Mains to Be Located in the East End.

Supt. Phil Morley, of the water works department, this morning announced that he had completed the work of measuring the districts in the East End through which additional water service would be extended. To complete this work will require between 4,000 and 5,000 feet of pipe of the four and six-inch variety.

After these new mains are laid the water service will be extended almost to the state line, giving a service to a part of the city which in the past has been in many instances dependent upon the water in the wells.

Work at Power House.

A force of men again resumed work at the power house this morning, building a brick wall or inclosure about the new boiler, which was recently installed there by the United Power company. The weather has held this work back considerably, otherwise the walls would have been completed. Work on the new building, to be built about the new boiler, will start as soon as the brick work is finished.

Home Circle Growing.

At a meeting of Eureka circle, of the Protected Home circle, which was held in the East End last evening, 11 new members were initiated, proving this order to be one of the largest in point of membership, of any in the East End. After the business session there was a social session, which was very enjoyable. Tomorrow evening this circle will visit Stratton circle, which meets on Fifth street.

Sale of Oil Property.

The Glover property at Smith's Ferry has been sold to Grant McGrew, of that town. The consideration was $500. Mr. McGrew is one of the most prominent residents of the Ferry and has been prominently identified with the oil development of that section of Beaver county.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. John Densmore is rapidly recovering from her recent illness.

Sophia Larkins, of the East End, who has been ill with diphtheria, was somewhat improved this morning.

The annual congregational meeting of the members of the Second U. P. church will be held this evening.

James Fulton, formerly a carpenter employed in the East End, will open a hardware store on Mulberry street soon.

Louis Howard, foreman of the East End street cleaning force, left yesterday for Jamestown, N. Y., in response to a message announcing the serious illness of his grandfather.

Governor Nash Urges the Legislature to Pass the Tax Bill.
Legislative Work.

Columbus, April 2.—(Special)—Governor Nash is visibly vexed over the manifest temporization of the senate with reference to his taxation measures and yesterday he sent a message to the general assembly in which he emphasizes requests made in two former messages, that, in order that the great majority of the taxpayers may be benefitted, these bills should be speedily passed and made laws.

As anticipated, the Sieber substitute for the Painter canal abandonment bill has passed the house. The purpose of the substitute is to make possible the permanent retention of the canals. The house also passed the Comings bill, providing for the abolition of canal commissioners positions. It provides that the entire state board of public works shall act in unison on canals. The senate yesterday passed the bill of Senator Connell, of Columbian, making the office of state dairy and food commissioner a three-year term and extending the term of office of the present incumbent 11 months.

The McDonald free lunch bill was defeated in the house Tuesday.

AN ADVERSE DECISION

Submitted by Attorney General
Sheets on Special Legislation in Ohio.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Behind in Their Work—Final Adjournment May Be Delayed on Account of Tardiness in Doing Out State Funds.

Columbus, O., April 2.—[Special.]—Attorney General Sheets has submitted an opinion to Speaker McKinnon of the house relating to the matter of special legislation for bond issues. While the opinion is one of transcendent importance it need cause no unusual surprise, since it is but a copy of the stand taken by the supreme court in several of its recent decisions. In brief, the opinion is that all legislation granting to municipalities the power to issue bonds for its own use is unconstitutional, and of no avail. Now, such an opinion given at the opening of the session would be most delightful and save the members of the assembly a wonderful amount of work, but coming at this time, shortly before adjournment, it is liable to completely upset plans and render void much that has been done. Many bills of such a character have been passed and the bonds authorized, issued and sold. What an embarrassing situation it will be for the papers to announce some day that the law under which the action was taken has been declared unconstitutional, and the whole proceeding wrong. Yet that is just what will be done in many instances. There is but one way out of all this difficulty, and towards that way the speaker is endeavoring to force the footsteps of the assembly. It is the passage of a general law carrying bond issues under which all municipalities in the state may work. Such a bill was introduced in the senate some time ago by Mr. Longworth of Cincinnati, but that one has no hope of passing. It is too sweeping in its provisions, and would permit councils too much leeway in the matter of determining when bonds should be issued. Speaker McKinnon is now having another drawn in which the interests of the people will be hedged around with all sorts of safeguards, and bonds can not be issued without their acquiescence in the plan. He hopes that it will be quickly passed, in order that the question may be determined once and for all. In the meantime there will be no more local bills acted upon.

The finance committees of the house and senate are weeks behind in their

It is proposed to make the senseless habit of treating in saloons unlawful in Ohio. Such an enactment would undoubtedly receive the endorsement of every friend of temperance. Drinking men will tell you—and they ought to know—that treating is responsible for a large share of the drunkenness that is prevalent in every city. A man who wants a drink would take it and go about his business, if an anti-treating law were rigidly enforced, and not feel under obligations to take another simply because some friend happened to be drinking and asked him to join him. When it comes to a party of half a dozen, each feeling it incumbent upon him to "treat the crowd," the result is by no means conjectural. Economy, health and temperance all call for such a law as is proposed.

Dr. Kingsley, a prominent western educator, in addressing a recent teachers' meeting, advised his hearers to read the daily newspapers diligently. It is the only way to keep in touch with the events of the world, and the doctor said that he received more inspiration from the newspapers than from any other source. The way to learn current history is to read of it while it is transpiring. "If you want to learn a great deal about the history of our country for the last 40 years which is not true," he remarked, "read any of the histories published during that period." A man who has read the newspapers for that period has an insight into history that the books can't give him.

Thomas Dunn English is dead at a ripe old age. Although he was at different periods a lawyer, a physician and an editor, doing creditable work in each of these professions, his fame was made as a poet. The simple song "Ben Bolt" is not remarkable as poetry, and "Sweet Alice," from her description, was more silly than agreeable. Yet, such is the hold the song had on the public a generation ago and still retains, it will doubtless live longer than anything else that its gifted author ever said or wrote.

Thousands of women have registered in the big cities of Ohio, so that they can vote next Monday. Thousands more, it is said, would have done so but for the requirement that they tell their age. The ladies should get to work and have the law amended so that a simple declaration that they are over 21 years of age will suffice.

The constantly lengthening list of real estate sales recorded in this paper shows that a great many East Liverpool people have money to invest and are investing it in lots and houses, a very wise and commendable course, which will be a source of great satisfaction in the future. Such investments, where good judgment is exercised in making them, are safe and reasonably sure to yield good returns. All indications point to a season of great activity among home-builders.

The Republican city ticket is a good one and it will unquestionably be elected. Republicans should turn out and make the majority so big that the Democrats won't have the courage to put even half a ticket in the field next time.

Jones, of Arkansas, can now sympathize with Bryan, of Nebraska. The same dose was fatal to the political prospects of both.

The United States Steel corporation earned $111,000,000 during its first year. It looks as if it might manage to worry along.

Botha.

Pretoria, April 2.—President Steyn and General Delarey have been located, and a meeting between them and Acting President Schalkburger is expected to be arranged without further delay. It is reported that General Botha will also attend the conference.

Commandant Meays has sent a word that his command will abide by the decision of the Boer government.

Commandant De Villiers, who has been operating in the Kimberly district, has sent in a flag of truce, asking for terms.

The peace movement, however, has in no way interfered with the military operations.

The British are again sweeping the northwest districts of the Orange River Colony, where it is believed they have about a thousand

Heidelberg, Transvaal, April 2.—Commandant Alberts has called a meeting of the Boers in his district to take place 35 miles east of the Springs station in order to discuss the proposal for general surrender. It is said that General Hans Botha has summoned a similar meeting at Amsterdam.

Surrenders are occurring daily in the Standerton district.

DIVORCE AND SHOOTING

In Which a Former Wellsville Woman Figured—Lost Her Home.

Mrs. Park Rex McClain, or Miss Emma Houser, formerly of Wellsville, who was divorced at Steubenville on Monday, has lost her home and is now among the Harrison county hills near Cadiz, according to a Steubenville paper. Mrs. McClain, it is said, showed a partiality to men other than her husband who works at the ice plant. A few days ago she procured a room in a house recently purchased by newcomers in Steubenville who became suspicious regarding numerous male "relatives" who called, and she was ordered to leave.

Sunday night some person appeared at the house and shot off a revolver, the bullet crashing through an upstairs window and passing close to the head of a roomer who was lying asleep in bed. It is thought the shooter wanted to kill Mrs. McClain.

JUTTE GIVEN A VINDICATION

Forgery Indictment Against Him Withdrawn In the Circuit Court.

TO A MISUNDERSTANDING

Was the Indictment Due in First Place. Dispute Arose of the Transfer of East Liverpool Bridge Bonds. Court Proceedings.

An echo of the East Liverpool bridge dispute was heard yesterday at New Cumberland when the indictment of W. C. Jutte, of Pittsburg, for forgery, came up in circuit court.

At the meeting of the grand jury of Hancock county during the first week of November, 1901, a true bill for forgery was found against Jutte. The particulars, as given at the time, are as follows:

Mr. Jutte purchased East Liverpool bridge stock, and it appeared that John Shrader executed a release of a judgment which he held against the bridge company and which amounted to about $21,000.

On January 1, 1901, Jutte's attorney, Henry C. Davis, it was alleged, presented to A. S. Cooper, clerk of courts of Hancock county, a writing which appeared to be an assignment of judgment for $21,000 with the name of W. S. Smoot as the party to whom judgment was assigned.

Mr. Shrader denied that ever executed an assignment of judgment and said the name of W. S. Smoot was inserted without his consent or knowledge and that the word "release" was erased from the writing and that the word "assigned" was substituted.

Mr. Shrader produced the original papers signed by Mr. Shrader and acknowledged by O. C. Marshall, notary public. The assignment was blank and the contract made by Mr. Shrader authorized Mr. Jutte to insert the name of an assignee. Jutte inserted the name. Another original paper was the original release for the alleged forgery.

When these papers were shown to Prosecuting Attorney J. A. McKenzie, he immediately asked Judge Harvey to dismiss the indictment, which was done, so that Jutte goes clear even of suspicion.

V. B. Archer, the leading counsel for Jutte, after the case was dismissed, said the indictment was found under a total misapprehension of the prosecution, witness and prosecuting attorney of the true state of facts.

MURDERS BY A SERVANT.

Mrs. Furbush and Eloise were on the third floor of the house and Madeline was on roller skates in front of the house. FOR VANDYKE LIQUOR BILL.

Methodist Episcopal Conference, at Bellefonte, Pa., Asked For Its Passage.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 2.—At the opening of the M. E. conference yesterday the board of stewards on necessary cases distributed to the incoming ministers and ministers' widows over $8,000.

A resolution was passed calling on the next session of the legislature to pass the Vandyke bill regulating the sale of liquor, which was defeated at the last session. In speaking for the resolution, Rev. J. B. Mann declared he knew of Methodist ministers who even signed petitions for license. Rev. E. H. Yocom, G. W. Stevens, J. F. Anderson, T. S. Wilcox and J. A. Wood were elected delegates to the Anti-Saloon League convention, to be held in Altoona.

An unusually prolonged and heated discussion was provoked over the report of the committee on constitutional prohibition, which was finally voted down because it was deemed too much of a dictation on the ministers' ballot. The last year's reports were then reaffirmed.

At 11 o'clock the conference went into secret session.

BRIBERY CHARGES.

Gron Appeared as Witness In Investigation of Danish Treaty Allegations.

GROSVENOR ALSO A WITNESS.

Gron Denied He Knew of Any Member of House or Senate Who Had Been Bribed or Whom Any One Attempted to Bribe.

Washington, April 2.—The investigation of charges made in connection with the Danish West Indies purchase was begun yesterday before the special committee appointed by Speaker Henderson. Beside the members of the committee there was present Niels Gron, who brought the charges to the attention of Representative Richardson and quite a number of interested spectators.

Mr. Gron was the first witness sworn by Mr. Dalzell. He testified in part that in February last parties in Copenhagen, who opposed the transfer of the Danish West Indies to the United States conferred with him and brought to his attention the Christmas report.

Members of Danish Congress.

Chairman Dalzell asked who those parties were. The witness said they were members of the Danish upper house, but he did not think it proper to give their names. Mr. Gron said he was at present the representative in this country of these parties.

Mr. Gron gave way temporarily to Representative Alexander, of Buffalo, who desired to make a complete disclaimer of any knowledge of Christmas or the Danish transactions.

Continuing his statement, Mr. Gron explained how the Danish parties opposing a sale of the islands had persuaded him to come to Washington and place the Christmas report before congress and the public, so that the facts would be known. He told of having secured a note of introduction to General Grosvenor, of Ohio; of arranging to meet the latter in Washington, his purpose being, he said, to carry out assurances given at Copenhagen that he would place the matter before influential men and thus bring it to the attention of congress and the public. Mr. Gron told in great detail of bringing the papers before General Grosvenor, who at first seemed quite indignant. Mr. Gron said, and spoke of laying the matter before the proper parties in order that suitable action might be taken. The witness said that later General Grosvenor concluded that it would be proper to lay the matter before the secretary of state. This was done and Mr. Gron said he learned that the state department held that it could take no action and that the authorities here had in no way committed themselves to Christmas.

Gron said that after General Grosvenor had decided not to proceed with the matter he (Gron) had prepared a statement for the Associated Press and had asked Mr. Crane, a newspaper man, to send some one from the Associated Press to him for the statement, and also to General Grosvenor for assurances as to Gron's standing. He learned later through Mr. Crane that General Grosvenor said he knew nothing about it.

He said he was informed the day after he submitted the statement that the Associated Press could not use it. Afterward, he said, he submitted his statement to several newspapers and more or less of it was printed.

Showed It to Richardson.

The witness then detailed how he had placed the matter before Representatives Richardson and Underwood, who had gone over the paper.

"What was your object in bringing it before members?" asked Mr. Dalzell.

"To get it into the house and before the American people," answered the witness.

He referred to the reports that he (Gron) had himself been trying to obtain a commission for the sale of the islands and that the whole matter was a quarrel between Christmas and himself over the commission. This Mr. Gron denied, and in support read a letter stating that an old alliance between certain Danish men and Americans in the fall of 1897 was declared off 18 months ago. He mentioned the names of H. H. Rogers, Charles B. Flint and himself as minister to Siam.

Mr. Gron said he was a Republican; had canvassed for that party in 1892 and 1896, and in 1897 had been a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidacy, signed by Senator Culom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

In reply to specific questions, he said he knew of no senator or representative who had been bribed or whom any one had attempted to bribe. At the state department he had only personally seen Mr. Kasson. Mr. Gron was then excused.

Chairman Dalzell announced that he had summoned Abner McKale, Colonel Browne and Fischer Hansen, and that they would appear on Thursday.

DO YOU SEE THE TWO CHESTNUTS ONE OF THE BOYS HAS GATHERED?

In negotiating the sale of the islands Mr. Gron said he undertook to re-open the negotiations after the war. The committees in Copenhagen and America had not been dissolved. Christmas came to the United States in December, 1899. Mr. Gron was closely questioned as to whether a proposition was made for Christmas and Rogers and himself to divide the commission. He replied that there were various propositions. Asked as to the threat attributed to Rogers in the Christmas report (in which Rogers was made to say that he had 28 votes in the senate and could defeat the negotiations), Mr. Gron said he was never present at an interview between Rogers and Christmas. He had never heard Mr. Rogers make such a threat.

No Contract With Christmas.

He denied absolutely the statement that he (Gron) had signed a contract with Christmas by which he (Gron) and Rogers were to have two-thirds of the commission. He had never made any contract of any character with Christmas, but the latter had made over a power of attorney to him, which later he (Gron) repudiated.

Mr. Rogers saw Christmas, he testified, but once. After that Rogers refused to see Christmas or answer his letters or telegrams.

As to the Christmas interviews, in which Christmas was made to say that he had had negotiations with Abner McKinley, which Christmas, in his report, declared had been instigated by Gron, the witness said that he had no connection with them. Mr. Pitt asked him specifically if he knew what press associations were referred to in the Christmas reports.

"I do not know," replied Mr. Gron.

At this point the committee took a recess until 2 o'clock.

When the investigation was resumed after recess Representative Grosvenor appeared and made a statement concerning the subject. He spoke of receiving the note introducing Mr. Gron, and of going over the papers with him. At that time Mr. Grosvenor felt that the matter should be looked into with a view of ascertaining if there was any irregularity.

With that end in view he conferred with Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, and asked that an appropriation bill for the Danish purchase came in that action on it be deferred until Mr. Grosvenor returned from western trip and had an opportunity to go over the papers.

On his return to the city Mr. Grosvenor saw Secretary Hay in relation to the matter. It was the view of the secretary of state that there was nothing in the charges of which cognizance should be taken.

Hanna Had Appointed Him.

Resuming his testimony, Mr. Gron related his connection with the Scandinavian department of the national Republican committee in 1896, to which place, he said, Senator Hanna had appointed him. Later, he said, Senator Hanna gave him a letter of recommendation to the two Massachusetts senators, Messrs. Hoar and Lodge, and the latter in turn joined a letter recommending Gron to the president for appointment as minister to Siam.

Mr. Gron said he was a Republican; had canvassed for that party in 1892 and 1896, and in 1897 had been a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidacy, signed by Senator Culom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by the invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. 10,000 TO STRIKE.

Rochester and Pittsburg Iron and Coal Co. Men Are Ordered Out.

WILL MAKE OTHERS IDLE.

Nearly as Many Railroaders Will Be Without Work, In Consequence. Caused by Refusal of Manager to Sign Scale.

Altoona, Pa., April 2.—After mass meetings of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company's miners were held at Punxsutawney and Sykesville yesterday, the threatened strike was formally declared. It involves 10,000 miners and will have the effect of curtailing the employment of nearly as many more railroad men employed by the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad company, whose freight traffic will be nearly paralyzed in consequence of the strike. Not a mine worker employed by the Rochester and Pittsburg company will be at work today, except the puffers and track layers, it being agreed to keep these men at work to protect the mines.

It was decided by a vote, however, that if General Manager L. W. Robinson should attempt to evict the strikers from their homes, many of which are owned by the company, the puffers and track layers will also be called out and the mines allowed to flood. It was also decided that any overtures for a settlement must come from Robinson. Any attempt to import other miners will be resisted. The strikers have assurance of support from the district and national treasuries of the United Mine Workers of America.

The strike was ordered not for an advance in wages, but because Lucien W. Robinson, general manager of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company, has refused to sign the agreement of the miners' and operators' conference at Altoona last week. The agreement at that conference was the same as during the last year, except that the mines along the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railway, all of which are managed by Mr. Robinson, the miners being granted their demand to have mules haul the cars out instead of pushing them, as is the case in the mines of thin veins.

Regarding the conference Mr. Robinson said to the Associated Press representative yesterday at Punxsutawney:

The Altoona conference would not concede to the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company the same conditions of labor as to other operators present on the ground that in thin seams of coal the miner was willing to perform more labor for the same pay than in the thick seams of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company."

Mr. Robinson says his company proposed to pay the same scale of wages for mining their thick seams as other operators paid in the thin seams of coal, but insisted it was unfair to discriminate against his company in not granting the same rights as the Altoona conference agreed to with all other operators as to handling cars, the same in thick seams as in thin. Mr. Robinson also agreed to meet any price for mining in any competitive field.

The miners have been earning better wages than ever before, but they say they are tired of pushing cars.

COMBINE'S IMMENSE EARNINGS.

New York, April 2.—The directors of the United States Steel Corporation, in quarterly meeting here yesterday, gave formal approval to the conversion plan under which it is proposed to retire preferred stock to the amount of $200,000,000 upon which dividends are paid at the rate of 7 per cent per annum and issue bonds to a total of $250,000,000 with interest fixed at 5 per cent.

May 19 was fixed as the date upon which the project will be submitted to the shareholders. The directors also issued a statement showing that the earnings of the corporation for the first year of its existence, which ended on March 31, with the last month estimated, reached a total of $11,007,195.

CAMERA CLUB

ARRANGING FOR AN ENTERTAINMENT ON APRIL 11.

Photographic Exhibit By Means of a Magic Lantern the Leading Feature.

A meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the M. E. church was held last evening. The attendance was large. After the regular opening exercises, the annual election of officers occurred, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Crook; first vice president, Mrs. Clark Crawford; second vice president, Mrs. Geo. Wassman; recording secretary, Mrs. Ella Kober; corresponding secretary, Miss Florence Updegraff; mite box collector, Mrs. Maggie Kinsey. An invitation was accepted by the society to hold its next Missionary Tea at the home of Mrs. Will Reed, on Seventh street, Friday afternoon, April 18.

A very interesting letter, written by the President, Mrs. S. J. Cripps, was read by the secretary. Mrs. Cripps is delighted with the Florida climate and is much improved in health. She expects to return about April 15. There are about twelve Liverpool people at the hotel at Mt. Dora, Fla.

The East Liverpool Camera Club has arranged for an entertainment, which is to take place in the rooms of the club on Friday evening, April 11.

Music will be furnished by a local mandolin club.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

Of the M. E. Church Held an Interesting And Enjoyable Meeting.

The home of Mrs. J. M. Kelly, of East Market street, was the scene yesterday of a very pleasant affair, when the retiring and new officers of the missionary societies of the First Presbyterian church were entertained. The afternoon was busily spent in plying the needle. Refreshments were served, and the afternoon pleasantly spent by about twenty ladies. Mrs. Kelly was assisted by Miss Neyling, Miss Virginia Thompson and Mrs. W. H. Vodrey.

A Pleasant Affair.

The leading feature of the entertainment will be a photographic exhibit by means of a magic lantern, which will be operated by Joseph Harrington. Dr. J. A. Norris and M. C. Wright will also exhibit some fine views, and it is expected that Thomas Gotham will deliver an address on photography.

Aside from the entertainment proper, a social session will be held and luncheon served. It is the intention of the members of the club to hold an entertainment each month in the future.

Attend Erlanger's opening.

SEVERAL CHARGES

OF FORGERY MADE AGAINST ONE HARRY PHILLIPS.

Pittsburg Officer Looking for the Man Who Swindled O. O. Allison.

A Pittsburg officer is in the city, having arrived yesterday afternoon, who is trying to learn the whereabouts of Harry Phillips, who, it is alleged, forged the name of William Banfield to a check drawn for $22.50, which he succeeded in getting cashed at O. O. Allison's store in Chester.

In addition to this forgery Phillips is accused of having swindled Robert Skemp, manager of the mill at Scottsdale, Pa., from which town he came to Chester on last Friday. He is alleged to have forged a check on Skemp for the same amount he secured by the use of Banfield's name.

There is yet another charge against Phillips, and it is this one that the Pittsburg officer is after him for. The charge is also forgery and Schuster Bros., grocers, of Monessen, Pa., are said to have this time been the victim of Phillips' crooked transactions.

The check which the fugitive forged on the Monessen firm is said to amount to almost $100.

It has been thus far impossible to learn even which direction Phillips went when he left Chester, though he told one of his acquaintances he expected to spend the summer at Charleston, W. Va. The authorities of that city have been notified to watch for the man and have a full description of him.

Phillips is nearly 50 years of age and an expert roller. He was given a job at the Chester mill, but quit after working one turn.

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

At an Afternoon And Evening Reception at the Steinfeld Home.

About 50 of the friends of Mrs. Louis Steinfeld yesterday afternoon responded to an invitation to attend a reception. In the house large cards were tacked here and there in conspicuous places, bearing the ominous words "Paint." Many of the ladies wearing fine gowns were especially careful not to come near the signs.

Not until they were seated at the tables did it dawn upon the guests that it was April Fool day. Several practical jokes were perpetrated in the menu served, much to the amusement of the guests.

After the refreshments the games which occupied the attention of the guests were euchre and peanuts. No prizes were awarded, but pretty favors consisting of a tiny rabbit or a decorated egg filled with candy were presented to each guest. The Steinfeld home was prettily decorated with pink and white flowers, the same color being carried out in the refreshments.

Mrs. Steinfeld was assisted by Misses Anna Thompson and Sara Hall and Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. W. H. Gass and Mrs. Ed Carson.

The afternoon affair was followed by a whist party for which nine tables were provided. Mrs. George Thompson and Mr. Fred Cartwright scored the most points at this game. The favors were the same as in the afternoon. Each of these functions was highly enjoyed.
